FOLDING BEDS

You Can Do Almost Anything

With our Gosben folding bed. There used to be an idea that two into one wouldn't go; this bed upsets the notion completely. It doesn't, like the chameleon, change its color, but it does change its character, and it is as handsome as a bed at night as it is as a book-case in the day-time. It is one of the happiest combinations of modern ingenuity, and in an instant it turns your sleeping apartment into a handsomely appointed library. Perhaps you have an idea that this double advantage carries with it a double cost. It does not. Call and see it and learn the price.

WAGON LOADS!

You see our wagons every day in every part of the city delivering great loads of Furniture, Carpets, Stoves and Household goods. You see them oftener and better loaded than those of all our competitors together. We mention this as a pointer to you, that as sure as people come to our store and get our prices and terms they are satisfied; they buy. Our terms, prices and goods are the best to be had.

GRANDPA'S HAT IS BATTERED IN!

The Day of Ben's destiny's over,
His time in the White House is short;
He bowed down to Honest Old Grover,
And there's no use to pout or to snort.

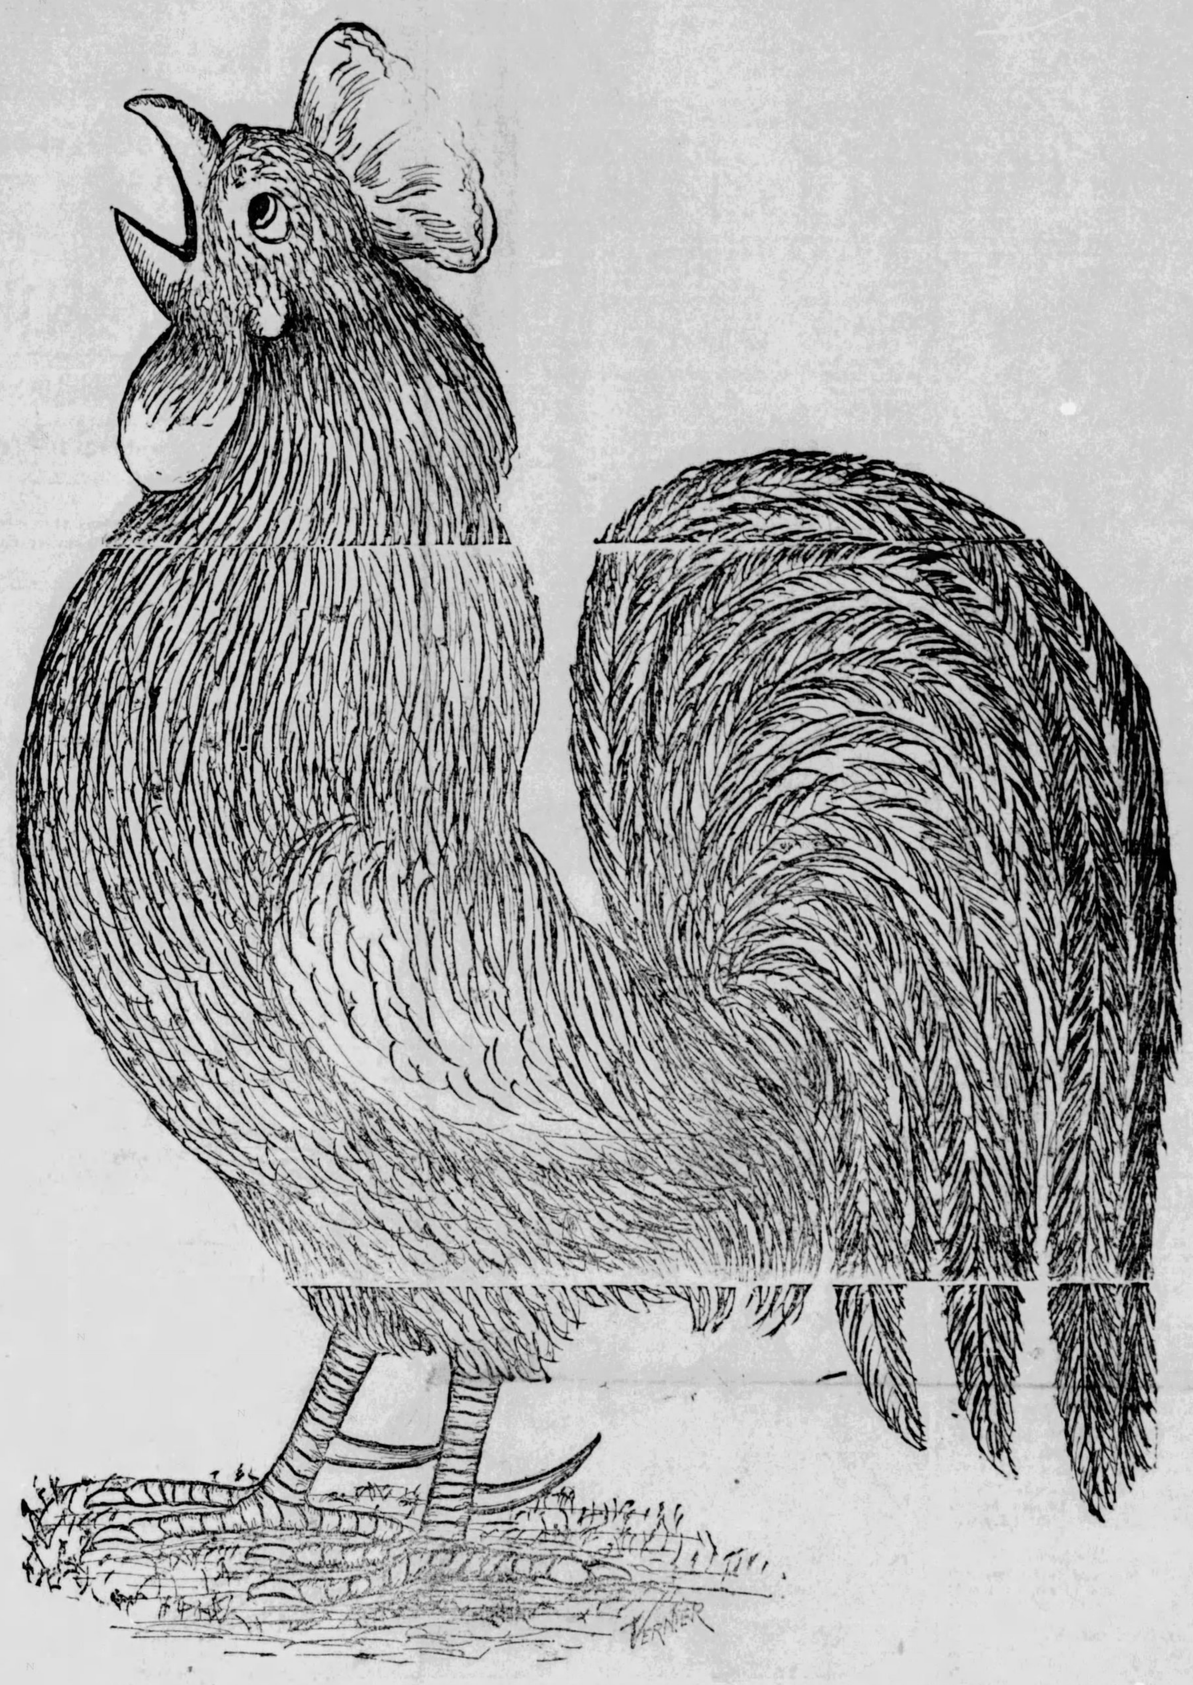
He was doubled up with corruption;
Was steeped in the sin of his day—
It came out in violent eruption,
And they carried poor Benny away.

Old Michigan came to the front,
And whooped it up for Grover;
They had to do it, don't you know,
'Twas the case the country over.

And why did this all come about?
Can you read it in the stars?
'Twas 'cause the people arose en masse,
And threw down commercial bars.

And Illinois, the Sucker State,
Is a "sucker" state no longer;
She's whooped it up for Cleve and Steve.
And the party's all the stronger.

'Twas a year for Record Breakers,
And Dems. came down in a prance;
They couldn't help it; Well, I guess
They're related to good old Nance.



CROW! BIRD OF FREEDOM, CROW! THOU EMBLEM OF THE PEOPLE'S VICTORY,

Thou blessed type of love and peace, our hope and faith thou still increase.
Be ever with us, noble bird, thou spreadeth joy wherever heard.

CLEVE AND STEVE ARE THE BOYS THAT WIN,

And They Win All Their Fights Without Any Tin.

They Hadn't the Cash, But They Did Have the Right,

And That's Why We Snowed 'Em Way Out of Sight.

The Corrupt Old Ship Has Gone Down in Disgrace,

By the Votes of a Truly Outraged Populace.

Cleveland and Stevenson have been elected president and vice-president of the United States.

It was so decisive that blocks of five and 8 to 7 deals could not avail.

Tammany did its full duty and Cleveland will have 30,000 majority in the state of New York.

Indiana is democratic.

Illinois has joined the democratic column.

Republican states have united with the people's party.

What does it mean?

Simply that the people are thinking, and, thinking, are voting as they think.

Hurrah for Cleveland!

Hurrah for Stevenson!

Hurrah for Tammany!

Hurrah for Hill!

Hurrah for the United Democracy of a land, the proudest under the sun, the one most ready to correct existing evils at the ballot box.

Deputy marshals were hired by the republican party to do the bidding of the most gigantic corruption fund that ever was raised in the world.

That it did not avail is the surest indication of the stability of our system of government.

Once more, Hurrah!

In the language of the governor of South Carolina: Have one with the Bee.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 9.—(Special.)—Tammany has carried every assembly and aldermanic district in the city.

Falling Off in the State.

New York state—376 districts outside give Cleveland 42,018, Harrison 53,497. Same districts in 1888 gave Cleveland 45,160, Harrison 56,935.

New York Times bulletin says Illinois has gone for Cleveland by 15,000, and that Altgeld, dem., is elected governor.

New York City.

New York—Total vote for president in this city with three districts estimated as follows: Cleveland, 174,885; Harrison, 99,785; plurality for Cleveland, 75,100.

Harrison Loss.

New York—714 districts outside give Cleveland 82,611, Harrison 99,748; same in 1888 gave Cleveland 86,995, Harrison 107,923.

Republican Loss in Kansas.

New York Tribune says Harrison carries Pennsylvania by 85,000.

Sun claims Cleveland carried Connecticut by 3,000.

Times bulletin says republicans have lost the legislature in Kansas.

Harrison Falling Off.

New York—629 districts outside New York and Brooklyn give Cleveland 73,811. Harrison 87,324. In 1888—Cleveland 77,992, Harrison 94,451.

Illinois Conceded.

New York Herald bulletin says Chicago Tribune concedes Illinois to Cleveland.

This is Strange.

New York Tribune bulletin says Ohio has gone republican by 25,000 majority.

But He Won't.

New York City Press association says if Cleveland carries Indiana and gets 5 votes in Michigan and carries either West Virginia or Connecticut and loses Delaware he will have 222 votes and that will throw the decision into the house.

Only 65,000.

New York World says Tennessee is democratic by 65,000 majority.

A Landslide.

New York—1,229 districts outside give Cleveland 147,644, Harrison 171,705. Same in '88 gave Cleveland 151,046, Harrison 183,892.

Gain for Cleveland.

New York—425 districts outside give Cleveland 47,136; Harrison, 60,622. Same in 1888 gave Cleveland 50,566, Harrison 65,008.

Claiming Illinois.

New York—Both Herald and World claim Cleveland has carried Illinois, but Chicago says nothing definite as yet.

Why Not?

New York Tribune bulletin says indications are that Cleveland has carried New Jersey by 6,000 plurality.

Heavy Vote.

New York—430 election districts out of 1,137 give Cleveland 60,737; Harrison, 34,589.

I Guess Yes.

New York Herald bulletin says the carried New York state by 25,000.

Shouldn't Wonder.

New York Herald bulletin says the outlook favors Cleveland's election as president.

Simply Awful.

New York Sun bulletin says New York and Kings county gives Cleveland over 100,000.

Hurrah for Gilroy.

Gilroy elected mayor of New York city by about about 60,000 majority.

Mail and Express.

New York Mail and Express says Cleveland's majority south of Yonkers is 75,000; claims Harrison carries Connecticut by 1,500.

Kings County.

New York Herald bulletin says Kings county will give Cleveland about 16,000 majority.

Big Majority.

Herald bulletin says Cleveland's majority in New York city is a little over 70,000.

The More the Merrier.

New York—The World claims New York, Indiana, Illinois, Connecticut, New Jersey and 8 votes in Michigan for Cleveland.

25,000 in Kings.

Herald bulletin estimates Cleveland's majority in Kings county at 25,000.

Not Through Voting Yet.

World's bulletin says Georgia gives Cleveland 70,000 majority.

Republican Loss.

Herald bulletin says Livingston county shows republican loss over 1888 of 300.

50,000 Votes.

Herald bulletin says Virginia is for Cleveland by 50,000.

New York's Precincts.

New York—Total number of election districts in this state is 5,107, of which 1,137 are in New York.

New York City.

New York City Press association indications are that Cleveland's majority in this city will be 60,000.

300 Districts.

New York—300 election districts out of 1,137 give Cleveland 41,541, Harrison 23,679.

Weaver Is In It.

New York Herald bulletin says indications are that Weaver has carried Colorado and Oregon. No figures are given though, and none yet received by any of the press associations.

Herald claims Cleveland probably carries Washington.

Gleason Elected.

New York—It is claimed Gleason is elected mayor of Long Island city.

Seven for Cleveland.

New York Bulletin says Michigan gives at least seven electoral votes for Cleveland.

Rochester's Vote.

City of Rochester complete—Cleveland, 13,121; Harrison, 14,595. In 1888 the city gave Cleveland 11,409; Harrison, 14,036.

Brooklyn.

Brooklyn—630 districts out of a total of 648—Cleveland, 88,301; Harrison, 63,237.

How They Did Vote.

Brooklyn—10 districts out of 648 give Cleveland 1,736; Harrison 895; Bidwell 24; Weaver 29; Wing 15.

MARYLAND.

Good for Baltimore.

Baltimore.—Ten out of 24 districts of Frederick county: Harrison, 2,305; Cleveland, 2,398; same in 1888 gave Harrison 2,455; Cleveland, 2,307.

SWEPT OUT OF POWER

The Republican Party Is Downed.

It Can no Longer Hold Up Its Head.

The United States Senate Will Be Democratic Body in the Future.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—The Herald says: Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson have been elected president and vice-president of the United States by an overwhelming majority, both of the popular vote and the electoral college.

New York and Illinois, the two greatest states in the union, joined with the south to accomplish this grand triumph of the candidates and principles of democracy.

In addition to the states swept by democracy must be counted those which repudiated the thieving protective tariff without adopting entire the democratic faith.

Kansas, which in 1888 gave Harrison 80,000 majority, declared for the candidate of the third party.

Nebraska, Oregon and Nevada likewise rejected Harrison and protection and sought a place in the Weaver column.

The republican disaster is not confined to the loss of the presidency.

The long-continued ascendency of that party in the United States senate has been broken at last.

It has lost senators in New York, Connecticut, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wyoming.

The next house of representatives is overwhelmingly democratic, and after the 4th of next March the republicans will find themselves for the first time in 30 years out of power in all branches of the executive and legislative departments of the government.

The triumph of the people is complete.

The baneful policy of protection is doomed.

RITCHIE ELECTED.

The Smallest Figures Give Him a Majority.

It May Vary a Little From the Following, But Likely Not Enough to Hurt.

The best estimate on congressman in the Ninth district makes Byron Ritchie's election certain. Here are the majority figures:

	Ritchie.	Ashley.
Lucas	....	61
Fulton	....	775
Wood	....	489
Ottawa	1,375
Total	1,375	1,325
	1,325
Ritchie's majority	50

AN OPEN LETTER.

Two Well Known Physicians Address the Public.

Lax Medical Laws Enable Fakirs to Fleece People—A Direct Personal Statement of Interest to Everybody.

To Our Friends and the Public:

Since locating in this city, we have learned from our patients and from others with whom we have conversed, that the people of the city of Toledo have suffered terribly at the hands of quacks and impostors, medical frauds and tramps who have infested the city.

Under the lax medical laws of Ohio, almost any kind of quackery can be carried on, and so much of it has been done that it is not at all surprising that the people of this city should hesitate before entrusting their cases to doctors who advertise in the papers.

There is this to be remembered, however. It must not be considered that because a doctor advertises he is to be classed with quacks and frauds. There is a wide distinction between advertising doctors and doctors who advertise. Among the latter class are some of the best men in the country. Among the former are the frauds, fakes, humbugs and charlatans who operate under a respectable guise to deceive, rob and commit crime.

There is a class of men in every community who advertise themselves as specialtists. They were not specialists before they advertised. We respectfully refer the public to our credentials which are printed below. Further than this we will not go, as we believe too much in the intelligence of the people to assume that puffing or self laudation will weigh more than careful, conscientious work.

We are here as gentlemen and physicians to practice medicine, to treat all diseases. Our rates are $5 a month for service and medicines. We have located in Toledo to remain. We want every man, woman and child in this community, who is suffering from any disease whatever, to know that they can save money by taking treatment with us. If anyone who is being treated for a chronic disease is paying more money than this, he is wasting the surplus over $5 a month.

Our record is an open book, our credentials can be inspected at our offices, and our ability is attested by the cures that we perform. We respectfully solicit the patronage of the people of Toledo.

W. C. BYERS, M. D.
WILLIAM DOUGAN, M. D.

For a month past, Drs. Byers and Dougan have been treating a large number of patients free of cost. This was done for the purpose of demonstrating to all who cared to test them what they could do. A great many doctors advertise, but very few of them carry out the letter of their promise. It is one thing to advertise and another to cure. Drs. Byers and Dougan do not guarantee a cure, but they promise to cure every case that is curable. Each physician has had a wide experience in the treatment of chronic diseases. Each is a competent, skilled, able man. They prefer to testimonials given by grateful patients to show what they can do, and they are anxious to undertake to treat those who have failed to obtain relief from other physicians.

The free treatment period has expired. Henceforward the price for medical treatment at the hands of these physicians will be $5 a month for all diseases. Medicines are furnished free. Remember, therefore, that you can get the best medical service at the least cost from Drs. Byers and Dougan for any disease whatever, at Five Dollars a Month.

HEAD AND STOMACH.

Mr. John Hefner, East Liverpool, Ohio, Describes How Neglected Catarrh

Affected His Head and Stomach and How He Was Cured by Dr. Byers and His Associates.

"I had been troubled two years with my head and stomach," says Mr. John Hefner, who is a teamster in the employ of Mr. William Sells, contractor, East Liverpool, O. "It was no doubt brought on by exposure to all kinds of weather, and the result of neglected colds. My nostrils were always clogged by mucous, which also dropped down into my throat, causing me to hawk to dislodge, and I was often attacked by the most excruciating headaches, which would lay me off from my work several days at a time.

"My stomach also became affected to such an extent that it was with difficulty I ate enough to keep up sufficient strength to enable me to get through with my work. I would get such fearful attacks of heartburn that I would be worth nothing for hours afterward.

"I had doctored and doctored without benefit, until one month ago I decided to go to Pittsburg and consult Dr. Byers and his associates. They examined me carefully, and told me my head and stomach trouble came from catarrh, and that they would cure me if I would follow their instructions faithfully. They gave me a month's supply of medicine to take home; and I must say that I have not been troubled with my head and stomach since the second day's treatment. It is simply miraculous how quick the medicine took effect. I cheerfully recommend them to all my friends and the public who may be suffering with any chronic trouble, as I know they understand their business perfectly."

Their Credentials

Drs. Byers & Dougan ask that their credentials and claims be thoroughly examined and investigated. Dr. Byers is a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, Pa., 1872, and has had 20 years active experience in diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat and lungs. Dr. Dougan is a graduate of the Buffalo Medical College, and also of McGill University of Montreal, Canada, and holds both Canadian and United States qualifications. Dr. Dougan has had 25 years experience in treating chronic diseases of the lungs, stomach, heart, liver, kidneys, bladder, rectum, diseases of women, etc., etc.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never Fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist.

ROOM FOR ALL OF 'EM

Ohio Is Due Next Fall in Line.

The Democratic Party Knows No Bounds.

Its Principles Are Broad and Wisconsin Has Adopted Them.

Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—There is no outlook. Wisconsin is certainly democratic for Cleveland and Peck by from 10,000 to 15,000. Republicans concede the state legislature, which will return a democratic senator in place of Sawyer. A majority of congressmen are democrats. An extra of the Journal issued at 9 a. m. contains the following:

"Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—Hon. Grover Cleveland, New York: Wisconsin assures you her 12 electoral votes and congratulates you and the country on the magnificent victory. E. C. Wall."

It was after 3 o'clock this morning that

First Lady of the Land.

Chairman Wall, of the democratic state committee, sent the foregoing dispatch. At that hour all doubt that Wisconsin is really a democratic state had been removed.

Returns from one-quarter of the state showed that Cleveland and Peck (governor) had carried the state by a plurality of from 10,000 to 15,000. Both branches of the legislature are democratic and a majority of the congressional delegation.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 9.—In Michigan the republicans carry the state for Rich for governor by 8,000, the whole republican ticket having the same majority. The probabilities are that the republicans have the legislature, though the democratic and populist fusion may give them a majority. On congress districts the following are elected:

First, Chipman, democrat; Second, Gorman, democrat; Third, Burrows, republican; Fourth, Thomas, republican; Fifth, Richardson, democrat; Sixth, Aitken, republican; Seventh, Whiting, democrat; Eighth, Linton, republican; Ninth, Wheeler, democrat probably elected; Tenth, both sides claim congressman; Eleventh, disputed by both parties; Twelfth, republican elected. Cleveland gets the eastern, and the first, second, third, fifth, and ninth electoral districts.

Wayne county, in which Detroit, a democratic city, is located, elects possibly one democratic county officer. All others elected by republicans by majorities of from 2,000 to 6,000.

The Vote in Michigan.

Michigan—60 precincts outside of Wayne county give for governor—Rich, rep., 7,501; Morse, dem., 6,582; Ewing, peo., 812; Russell, pro., 45.

From Michigan.

Michigan—40 precincts outside Wayne county give for governor—Rich, rep., 4,337; Morse, dem., 4,000; Ewing, peo., 392; Russell, pro., 45.

Coming in Carriages.

Michigan—160 precincts outside of Wayne county gives for governor—Rich, rep., 22,304; Morse, dem., 19,496; Ewing, peo., 2,363; Russell, pro., 137.

In Michigan.

Detroit—120 precincts outside Wayne county give Rich, rep., 16,550; Morse, dem., 13,938; Ewing, peo., 1,529; Russell, pro., 135.

Western Michigan.

Michigan—60 precincts in the western electoral districts give Harrison 8,461; Cleveland 6,684; Weaver 823; Bidwell 549.

Outside Counties.

Detroit—80 precincts outside of Wayne county give Rich, rep., 10,473; Morse, dem., 8,811; Ewing, peo., 1,059; Russell, pro., 45.

Counting Them Up.

Detroit—20 precincts of Michigan in the Seventh electoral district give Harrison 2,811; Cleveland 2,617; Weaver 327; Bidwell 204.

For congress, Nixon, rep., 2,435; Whiting, dem., 2,373.

14 precincts in Tenth electoral district give Harrison 1,049; Cleveland 1,216; Weaver 151; Bidwell 150.

For congress, Van Kleek, rep., 858; Woodcock, dem., 1,015.

Michigan—100 precincts outside of Wayne county give for governor—Rich, rep., 13,366; Morse, dem., 11,084; Ewing, peo., 1,261; Russell, pro., 116.

Still They Come.

Detroit—25 precincts in eastern electoral district give Harrison 3,410; Cleveland 2,973; Weaver 859; Bidwell 351.

30 precincts in western electoral district give Harrison 4,516; Cleveland 2,939; Weaver 473; Bidwell 244.

IOWA.

Gains in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa.—39 precincts, Harrison 5,537; Cleveland, 4,933; Bidwell, 45; Weaver, 375; democratic gain, 115.

Gains in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia.—105 precincts give Harrison 13,837, Cleveland 11,796, Bidwell 321, Weaver 840; net democratic gain 297.

Minneapolis, Nov. 9.—A special to the Journal from Des Moines, Ia., shows that Harrison's gain in 370 precincts is over 6,000. This shows that Iowa is safely republican by 15,000 or more. Nine out of 11 republican congressmen are elected.

LOUISIANA.

Rained (Votes) in Louisiana.

Louisiana—Rains throughout the state. Vote light. Indications are that the entire democratic congressional delegation is elected.

FLORIDA.

Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla.—The state democratic executive committee says Cleveland's majority in the state will be 25,000 to 30,000. Both congressional districts democratic.

Called back to health—every tired, ailing nervous woman. The medicine to bring her back is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's weak, run-down, and over-worked, that builds her up; if she suffers from any of the distressing derangements and diseases that afflict her sex, it corrects and cures.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and the only guaranteed remedy for the ills and ailments that beset a woman. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

All "female complaints" and weaknesses are positively and permanently cured with the "Favorite Prescription." It's the only medicine for them that can be, and is, guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

Something else may be better for the dealer to sell—but think for yourself whether it can be "just as good" for you to buy.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Votes Coming In in the Old Bay State.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 9.—Returns from 209 cities and towns including Boston give:

For president—Bidwell, 4,467; Cleveland, 112,475; Harrison, 122,783. Harrison's plurality, 10,315. The same towns in 1888 gave Cleveland 98,776; Harrison 111,943. Harrison's plurality 13,167.

The same towns this year give for governor: Hamlin 4,579; Haile 114,086; Russell 119,188. Russell's lead, 5,102. The same towns in 1891 gave Allen 93,329; Russell 102,518. Russell's lead 9,189. Net democratic loss 4,087, not including Boston. These towns give for lieutenant governor: Carroll 66,070; Wolcott 75,388. Wolcott's plurality 9,318.

Returns from 268 towns in the state, not including Boston, give: For president—Bidwell 3,638; Cleveland 70,406; Harrison 91,252. Harrison's plurality 20,846. The same towns in 1888 gave Cleveland 62,086; Harrison 84,181; Harrison's plurality 22,095. The same towns this year give for governor: Hamlin 3,913; Haile 85,104; Russell 76,671; Haile's lead 9,031. The same towns in 1891 gave Allen 75,327; Russell 65,358; Allen's lead 4,369.

ERIE COUNTY.

The Democrats Sweep the Platter Clean.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—Democrats made a gain throughout Erie county to-day. The entire county ticket was elected despite the vote of the Ohio Soldiers' home, the inmates of which are nearly three-quarters republicans.

John Immel, of Berlin township, for sheriff; J. C. Parsons, of Sandusky, for commissioner and Christ Krock, of Huron township, for infirmary director, were elected.

Charles esser, democratic candidate for justice of the peace, was also elected by a large majority.

C. H. Scribner, democratic candidate for circuit judge, will have a majority, but how much, is not at this time known, owing to the incomplete returns.

Also Preston C. Hudson, democratic candidate for common pleas judge. It is safe to say Scribner and Hudson will have 350 majority in the county.

OHIO.

Republican Gain in Ohio.

Cincinnati.—199 precincts outside of Cleveland and Cincinnati give Harrison a plurality of 3,319, a net gain of 499 over 1891.

Only 40,000.

Cincinnati.—Tennesse straight democrat ticket for governor has a majority so far of 40,000.

Hard Sledding for Ben.

155 precincts of Cincinnati give Harrison a plurality of 3,061; same in 1891 gave McKinley a plurality of 3,767. 102 per cent outside of Cincinnati give Harrison 1,374 plurality; same in 1891 gave McKinley 283.

Putnam County.

Ottawa, O., Nov. 9.—Putnam county indicates 1,750 or better for Cleveland. Donovan, for congress, over 5,000 in the district; entire county ticket elected by majorities ranging from 800 to 2,200.

Will Carry Ohio.

Cincinnati.—37 scattering precincts in Ohio outside of Cincinnati and Cleveland give Harrison's plurality 929; same precincts in 1891 gave Campbell, dem., a plurality of 440.

Ohio's Contest.

Cincinnati.—2,800 voting precincts—McKinley's plurality over Campbell last year, 21,511. 546 precincts of Cincinnati give Harrison a plurality of 1,891; same precincts last year gave McKinley a plurality of 1,724.

INDIANA.

In Hendrick's Case.

Indiana.—60 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 6,239; Cleveland, 5,476; same in 1890 gave Trusler 5,503; Mathews, 5,202. Republican gain, 736; democratic gain 276; net republican gain 460. Vote for governor in same precincts: Chase, 6,204; Mathews, 5,458.

Indiana's Vote.

Indianapolis.—54 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 5,566; Cleveland, 4,939; same in 1890 gave Trusler 4,901; Mathews, 4,675. Republican gain 665; democratic gain 264; net republican gain 411. Vote for governor in same precincts, Chase 5,533; Mathews, 4,923.

Coming in Slowly.

Indiana.—30 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 3,145; Cleveland, 3,641; same in 1890 gave Hovey 2,648; Mathews, 2,396.

A Straw.

Indiana—80 precincts in Indiana give Harrison 8,212, Cleveland 7,208. Same in '90 gave Trusler 7,108, Mathews 6,613; republican gain 1,104, democratic gain 595, net republican gain 509.

WYOMING.

Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—Returns will be late both parties claim the state.

Wyoming.

Wyoming—Cold and very heavy vote polled. Returns will come slow. Both parties claim state.

ALABAMA.

Oh, My!

Alabama—42 precincts give Cleveland 4,437 majority.

Only Fifty Thousand.

Montgomery, Ala.—Cleveland has probably carried state by 50,000 majority.

MISSISSIPPI.

Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss.—Returns meager. Cleveland carries state by probably 20,000. Democrats claim all congressmen. People's party received less votes than was expected.

FIFTY THOUSAND.

New York Whoops It Up for Cleveland.

A Complete, Copper-Bottomed, Double Riveted Cinch on the Situation.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Sun says: "There will be no force." Yesterday's victory disposed forever of the infamous project which menaced the rights of American citizenship and the peace of the nation.

The conspiracy will never be revived.

"Whatever issues may divide parties in the future, the momentous question which during the past four months has united the democracy in defense of its fundamental principle, is settled and settled right. For the glorious result let every democrat be thankful.

"Something remains to be done. With a democratic president in the white house and a democratic house of representatives in the congress, the party of free government and home rule only awaits the day, now not far distant when the United States senate shall also be democratic. The acts of 1871, permitting in the name of federal law the outrageous interference and wholesale bribery of voters by the Davenports and the Jacobuses of the republican party must be repealed.

"To complete and clinch the splendid achievement of yesterday by wiping from the United States statutes every trace of Davenportism, is the most urgent duty before the triumphant democracy."

The Morning Advertiser says: "At this writing (1:30 a. m.) it is apparent that the state of New York has rolled up an unprecedentedly large plurality for Cleveland. It is estimated at 50,000. In this city and county Cleveland's plurality is set down at 76,000.

"Brooklyn and Kings county gave him a plurality of 29,000. The falling off in Mr. Harrison's vote in the rural districts which was predicted in a degree, has been more than realized. There is no accounting for it save upon the ground that the farmers have fallen in with the democratic idea that they would be better off if some of the wage earners and manufacturers of the country could be made poorer.

"They will have to be given time to recover from this hideous folly."

MINNESOTA.

Republicans Have Probably Pulled Out of a Hole.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 9.—The count in this city is extraordinarily slow. In some precincts but 300 out of 700 votes had been counted at 7:30 a. m. These votes and the meager returns from the state show that the fusion electors are running behind the regular democratic electors and that the Weaver vote is not heavy. Knute Nelson, rep., for governor, is estimated to have at least 10,000 plurality. Harrison probably has all the minnesota electors. In the First congressional district, Harris, dem., is probably elected by 300 plurality. In the Fifth district, Loren Fletcher, rep., is probably elected.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Hurrah for Berks.

Philadelphia—Berks county gives Cleveland majority 8,000, a dem. gain over '88 of 6,000.

KENTUCKY.

Cincinnati.—Kentucky, as usual, with increased majorities. All congressional districts democratic, excepting the Eleventh, which is no doubt republican.

After the Grip

Tremendous Roaring in the Head —Pain in the Stomach.

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and in my stomach. I took medicines without benefit, until having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. All the disagreeable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches, and believe is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." GEO. W. COOK, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

WELL, WE SHOULD SMILE!

Connecticut in the Proper Column.

Cleveland Carries the State and Morris Is Elected Governor.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 9.—Cleveland has a plurality in Connecticut of 5,330 and Morris' majority is 1,469 over all, and he is elected governor by popular vote.

Three democratic congressmen are elected and there are ties in five towns. The house will be republican but the senate will have a democratic majority.

CONNECTICUT.

Democratic Gain.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 9.—Ninety-three majority in Hartford is 694, democratic gain 374.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 9.—Ninetythree towns, Harrison 29,328, Cleveland 26,696, democratic gain over '88, 1,215.

Democratic Gain.

Connecticut—62 towns give republican gain on governor's vote 91. Sixty-three towns democratic gain, legislature 4.

Democratic Gain.

Hartford, Conn.—8 towns give democratic gain of 40 on president, 75 on governor, and gain of 3 in legislature.

No Change.

Hartford, Conn.—The congressional delegation from Connecticut will remain unchanged—three democrats, one republican.

ILLINOIS.

Illinois Farmers.

Chicago—125 townships outside of Cook county give Fifer 17,800, Altgeld 16,851.

148 townships of Illinois outside of Cook county, give Harrison 25,168, Cleveland 21,558. Same in 1888 gave Harrison 22,672, Cleveland 19,105. Cleveland's net gain 1,357.

Chicago's Vote.

Chicago—549 precincts in this city give Harrison 72,316, Cleveland 89,721.

103 townships in Illinois outside of Cook county give Fifer 14,697, Altgeld 14,230.

We Should Smile.

Chicago—The News claims Illinois for Cleveland by over 20,000, says 371 out of 693 precincts give Cleveland a majority 23,986.

Piling It Up.

Chicago—513 precincts city of Chicago give Harrison 67,921, Cleveland 83,738.

What—Is It So?

Chicago—55 townships outside of Cook county give Fifer 7,917, Altgeld 7,366. 317 precincts in city of Chicago give Fifer 43,646, Altgeld 60,410.

71 townships outside Cook county give Harrison 11,271, Cleveland 10,478. Same townships in 1888 gave Harrison 11,100, Cleveland 10,220. Cleveland's net gain 87.

Are They Still Voting?

Chicago—62 townships outside Cook county give Harrison 9,862, Cleveland 8,606. In 1888 same townships gave Harrison 9,703, Cleveland 8,337. Net gain for Cleveland 110.

362 precincts in Chicago give Harrison 43,472, Cleveland 64,592.

Altgelt in the Lead.

Chicago—392 precincts in Chicago give Fifer 54,938, Altgelt 74,945.

LATEST RETURNS.

Show That California Has Voted for Cleveland.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Sun's 6 a. m. extra says:

Returns received in the Sun office up to 6 o'clock show that Cleveland has carried the solid south, and of the so called doubtful states he carries Connecticut, 4,000 majority or more; New York state by 44,000, New Jersey by 8,000; Delaware by more than 1,000; Indiana by about 5,000; Illinois by 10,000, Wisconsin by 10,000, while Weaver has drawn from Harrison's vote of 1888 by carrying the states of Colorado, Idaho, Nevada and Nebraska and probably South Dakota.

The electoral college will probably stand 269 for Cleveland, 151 for Harrison and 22 for Weaver.

The vote in Minnesota has not been fully returned yet. The chairman of the democratic state committee is claiming the selection of four fusion electors.

In Michigan seven Cleveland and five Harrison electors apparently have been chosen.

At 4 a. m. dispatches from Boston say that Governor Russell's vote increases as the returns from missing towns and cities are received and it is quite likely that he is elected.

The legislature of the state of New York is democratic, the house having been carried by a majority of fourteen, thus insuring the election of a democratic senator in place of Mr. Hiscock.

The new house of representatives will have a democratic majority of more than one hundred. The new party nominees in the south have been defeated generally, but they hold their own in Kansas, Nebraska and other western states.

Werts, democratic candidate for governor of New Jersey, is elected by about 4,000.

It is possible that California has voted for Cleveland electors. The chairman of the state republican committee concedes that the city of San Francisco has gone democratic by 7,000 majority and there are gains enough outside the city to indicate that the state is democratic.

GOV. RUSSELL.

Believed That He Has Been Re-elected Governor.

Boston, Nov. 9.—10:40 a. m.—The democratic committee claim Gov. Russell's re-election by from 1,500 to 2,000 plurality.

Returns from the congressional districts indicate a gain of four congressmen for the republicans. Gen. Draper defeats George Fred Williams in the Eleventh district, Gillett in the Second, Wallace in the Third, Cogswell in the Sixth, Lodge in the Seventh, Morse in the Twelfth and Randall in the Thirteenth, all republicans, are elected. In the Tenth McEttick, independent democrat, is elected and in the Fourth, Apsley, republican, is thought to have defeated Coolidge. Crosby, democrat, and Stevens, democrat, are probably elected in the First and Fifth districts and in the Eighth district is claimed by both McCall and Andrew with the chances in favor of McCall, republican.

NEW JERSEY.

The Vote Coming In Slowly, but Democratic.

Belvidere, N. J., Nov. 9.—Returns come in very slowly. Warren county, it is estimated, will show a majority of 1,800 for Cleveland. Werts for governor has 1,700 majority in the county. Cornish for congress, has 1,500 majority and L. M. Wilson and R. G. Sheppard, democrats, have been elected to the assembly.

CLEVELAND SPEAKS.

He Is Called Upon by the Boys.

The Next President of the United States Thanks the Boys Who Voted for Him.

New York, Nov. 9.—Several gentlemen from the national headquarters went up to see Mr. Cleveland at his residence at about 2 o'clock this morning to congratulate him on his election.

There were in the party Chairman Harrity, Don M. Dickinson, C. S. Fairchild, William C. Whitney, C. C. Baldwin, Henry Villard and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland came out upon the portico and Mr. Cleveland made a short speech in acknowledgement of the congratulations.

FIVE THOUSAND.

Cleveland Wins in Connecticut In a Walk.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 9.—The vote in this state with one town missing gives: Cleveland, 82,406; Harrison, 76,989; Weaver, 3,994; scattering, 1,005.; Cleveland's plurality, 5,417. Four years ago it was 336. The entire democratic ticket is probably elected. Lewis Sperry, dem., is re-elected to congress from the First district James P. Piggott, dem., is elected in the Second district; Charles M. Russell, rep., is re-elected in the Third district by 527, a falling off of 465 votes from two years ago; Robert E. DeForest, dem., is re-elected from the Fourth district by 2,091. The state senate is a tie and the republicans have about 20 majority in the house.

NEBRASKA!

Nebraska is Interesting.

Omaha, Neb.—Weather throughout the state fine. Heavy vote; returns coming in slowly. There are 1,633 voting precincts in the state; 30 precincts so far heard from give Harrison 3,071; Cleveland, 921; Weaver, 2,613; Bidwell, 45.

TEXAS.

Texas Comes Up.

Galveston, Tex.—Vote probably not exceed that of '88, when Cleveland's plurality was 180,000.

GEORGIA.

Democratic Returns.

Atlanta—Democratic congressmen leading by large majority all over state.

About Two to One.

Atlanta, Ga.—20 precincts in state outside Atlanta—Cleveland 2,539, Harrison 1,085, Weaver 537.

Could Have Had More.

Atlanta, Ga.—Cleveland carries the state by 50,000 majority. Solid democratic delegation to congress.

BYNUM RE-ELECTED.

Marion County Has Gone Democratic.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—Retruns are coming in slowly. Marion county has probably gone democratic. The democratic committee claim the county by 1,300. Bynum is re-elected to congress from this (the Seventh district. At 9 a. m. both parties are claiming the state with the chances favoring the democrats.

DELAWARE.

Sussex County, Del.

Wilmington, Del.—The chairman of the republican committee says democrats concede Sussex county to the republicans. 15 districts in city show gains for Cleveland of 243.

BEN GAVE IT UP

When He Had Heard From Illinois,

He Wanted No Further Returns.

This Was a Case Where Some Was Altogether Too Much.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The president gave up the election when he heard from Illinois last night, remarking: "If Illinois has gone democratic that settles it," and he requested that no further returns be sent to him. Mr. Tibbott, his stenographer, at 10 o'clock this morning was still figuring upon some possible combination which might snatch victory from defeat, but with very indifferent success, even in his own mind.

The president rose at his usual hour, glanced over some of the latest returns which had been prepared for him and then calmly devoted himself to executive business, saying nothing.

Attorney General Miller and Secretary J. W. Foster of the state department are the only two members of the cabinet in the city. Though Secretary Charles Foster, of the treasury, will probably be at the department this morning ready to take good humoredly the badinage certain to await him over his confident predictions that Harrison would carry all northern states.

A SPEEDY HARE.

He Is Once More Elected to Congress.

Upper Sandusky, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—As usual, the democrats had their own way in this county. The vote polled is lager than four years ago, but not as large as last year. The democratic majority will be somewhat larger than that of last year. The figures in the city are: Cleveland, 565; Harrison, 294; Bidwell, 10; Weaver, 1.

The vote on secretary of state is even with head of ticket. Hull, republican candidate for congress, ran behind here, and Hare, democrat, is triumphantly elected.

DENNY DONOVAN.

He Will Go to Congress With 5,000 Behind Him.

Napoleon, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—Henry county has gone democratic by 1,450 for the head of the ticket, while the lowest man, Sheriff Decker, received 800.

Congressman Donovan ran even with Cleveland.

DEFIANCE

Democrats Whooped Up a Big Vote for Grover.

Defiance, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—The national and state democratic tickets get about 1,400. Rath, for sheriff, between 500 and 600. The rest of the county ticket was not scratched. Big democratic gains over last year. Democrats jubilant over everything. Biggest demonstrations ever seen here in the city held last night. W. A. Taylor, Day and Beer run the same as national ticket.

PUTNAM.

Eighteen Hundred Majority for Grover Cleveland.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—(Special)—Indications are 5,000 for Donovan. County ticket is elected from 300 to 1,500. Putnam county is 1,800 for Cleveland.

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., Oct. 26, 1892.

The committee on ways and means of the Common Council of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and the undersigned invite sealed proposals at this office to

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1892,

at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purchase of Sewer Improvement Bonds to the amount of Twenty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred ($27,500) Dollars, bearing date October 17, 1892, and payable as follows; $2,750 on April 17, 1893, and $2,750 at the expiration of every six months thereafter, to and including October 17, 1897, at the office of the city treasurer with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place, as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said Improvement Bonds are issued pursuant to section 2704 to 2708 of the Revised Statutes of the state of Ohio, and also under an ordinance of the Common Council of the City of Toledo, Ohio. "To provide for the issue of Improvement Bonds to pay the cost and expense of the construction of Sewer No. 271, in Sewer District No. 23, in Nevada street, from the Maumee River to Spring Grove Avenue."—Passed September 19, 1892.

The denomination of these bonds will be first payment one bond of $750 and two each of $1,000, and thereafter one of $750 and two each of $1,000 each payment.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined, and the awards made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the "Auditor of the City of Toledo, Ohio," and be endorsed "Proposals for Sewer Improvement Bonds."

JAMES H. PHEATT, City Auditor.

Fire on a Barge.

The lumber barge Uranus, Capt. Frederick, just arrived from Saginaw with lumber, caught fire yesterday afternoon at Mitchell & Rowland's wharf. An alarm was sent in and No. 5 engine was soon on the scene pouring a stream in the vessel's hold. It was several hours before the flames were extinguished. The vessel was not damaged much, but some lumbed was destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated. The barge is owned by F. Pease, of Saginaw.

Nevendorf's Case To-Morrow.

The trial of Councilman Neuendorf was set for hearing to-day, but was continued until to-morrow morning.

As was stated in the Bee, Mr. Neuendorf had withdrawn his precipe for a struck jury, and Prosecutor Barber stated this morning that the state would not demand one., so the case will be tried to the regulars. The state will conduct the prosecution in about the same manner as that of the others. There will be little or no new evidence introduced.

An Old Offender.

Complaint was made at the Humane office this morning that a man named Broer, living on Indiana avenue, had been treating his family badly, refusing to allow them to have a fire and making himself generally disagreeable.

His pretty young daughter stated that she wished to leave home and take care of herself, but her father refused to let her go, and he treats her mother much worse when the daughter is absent.

He is often intoxicated.

This morning he put out all the fires except one and shut himself up with this one, keeping his family out in the bitter cold.

He was sober, but cussed.

He is an old offender and has often been reprimanded by the Humane officer before. Strenuous measures will probably be taken to compell him to behave himself.

FROM BRYAN.

A Short Vote Reported up the Road.

Bryan, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—The county ticket is republican by majorities ranging from one to two hundred. State and national ticket same; vote short.

Seneca County.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 9.—Heavy vote polled and returns showing in six precincts reported give Harrison 790, Cleveland 1,584. The gain indicates a democratic majority in the county of 1,200. Entire democratic county ticket elected.

TOM JOHNSON.

Cleveland, Nov. 9.—(Special)—Late returns indicate the elcetion of Tom Johnson to congress.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT,

So Far As Republicans Are Concerned.

The Whole State Ticket Went in With Cleveland and Stevenson.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—The returns from Illinois are still incomplete, but all indications point to the carrying of the state by Cleveland and Stevenson by a plurality of from 8,000 to 10,000.

The entire democratic state ticket is also elected and the democrats have a majority of the congressional delegation, and have apparently gained control of both branches of the state legislature.

The republicans, while generally conceding the state to Cleveland, and the democratic state ticket, still insist there is a possibility of republican supremacy in the lower house of the legislature. The democratic victory in Illinois is apparently due to the general defection of the German Lutheran voters in the republican party. It was fully expected that the Germans would support Altgeld, the German-American candidate for governor on the democratic ticket, but the result shows that they have to a great extent supported not only Altgeld but Cleveland and Stevenson and the entire democratic ticket. It is probable that the democrats will retain their majority in the congressional delegation. There is no doubt of the election of the two democratic candidates for congressmen-at-large, and the indications are that in addition to the election of John C. Black and Andrew J. Hunter, the democrats have elected Lawrence F. McGann in the Second district, Allan C. Durburrow in the Third, Julius Goldzier in the Fourth, Lewis A. Stewart in the Eighth, Herman W. Snow in the Ninth, John J. McDonald in the Twelfth, Wm. M. Springer in the Thirteenth, Owen Scott in the Fourteenth, George W. Fithian in the Sixteenth, Edward Lane in the Seventeenth, Wm. S. Forman in the Eighteenth, and James R. Williams in the Nineteenth.

The republicans have apparently elected J. Frank Aldrich in the First district, A. J. Hopkins in the Fifth, Robert H. Hitt in the Sixth, Thomas J. Henderson in the Seventh, and George W. Smith in the Twentieth.

DENVER.

Indications That the State Will Be Close.

Denver, Col., Nov. 9.—The indications this morning are that the contest in this state will be very close. Returns from 146 towns outside of Arapahoe county give Harrison 5,693 and Weaver 10,243. Weaver and the populist state ticket are ahead in Lake and El Paso counties and Harrison and the republican state ticket are ahead in Pueblo county. These three counties cast more votes than any others outside of Arapahoe. At this hour (10 a. m.) it is believed that Waite, the populist candidate for governor, is elected.

Their Only Solace.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 9.—On very meager returns, Iowa appears to have gone 10,000 or 12,000 republican. First, Third, Fifth, Ninth and Eleventh congressional districts doubtful. Second democratic, all others republican. Weaver's vote probably 25,000; Bidwell, 8,000. Lacey, rep., has carried Sixth district by 1,500 plurality over White, democrat.

election. He will have less than 100, but it is enough."

"How is Scribner?"

"Scribner is elected by a small majority."

"And Pugsley?"

"Pugsley is also elected by a small majority. His majority of 2,400 in Lucas will pull him through."

HANCOCK.

It Is Back in the Democratic Column.

Findlay, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—Old Hancock is falling in line with the balance of the country. She has been redeemed and brought back into the democratic column.

The following is the glorious result in this county:

Cleveland carries the county by over 300 majority.

The entire democratic county ticket, with the single exception of Jos. Bartoon, who will probably squeeze through with less than 50 majority: C. B. Metcalf, auditor, by over 400 majority; David Hosler, for treasurer; John C. Mitchell, recorde; Henry Roder, for commissioner; Ezra Karn, for infirmary director; all by good safe majorities.

The run made by Hon. Fremont Arford for congress in this the Eighth district is a great honor to his party and himself. He carried Hancock by 514 majority. This county polled over 300 republican majority. He carried Hardin, Strong's own republican county, by 210 majority. Reduced the republican majority in Logan county over 300 votes. He reduced the majority in the district fro mnearly 5,000 to 1,500. He is proud of his strength shown. The democrats are crazy over their grand victory and the republicans are disconsolate over the loss of this county and all their money.

Violent Exercise.

Fat is a vulgar word. Too much adiposis or obesity sounds better. But fat is plainer. You cannot reduce it by violent exercise. There are two kinds of fats.

The unhealthy adipose tissue, resulting from sedentary habits or from forcing the appetite through stimulants; or from impure blood, or it may be hereditary. This is the kind that lays the possessor liable to heart disease, apoplexy, vertigo, etc.

Then there is the genuine, healthy, life-giving tissue, the result from regular and moderate habits, or if irregular habits, the taking regularly and according to directions the famous Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. The Sal will reduce unhealthy tissue and build in its place that firm and solid flesh which is the certain sign of perfect health. It is virtually taking the Carlsbad treatment in your home. Every drug store has it. The genuine has the signature of "Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents, New York," on the bottle.

Shake, democrats, shake.

'Twas a glorious victory.

A solid north? Not much.

Well, didn't we flog 'em?

Blaine ain't saying a word.

"It was a glorious victory."

Grandfather's Hat is no more.

"Where was I at?"—The Blade.

Ritchie and Grover. Well, well.

Judge Scribner made a good run.

The Bee displays its rooster to-day.

Ashley escapes as if by fire in Lucas.

The Bee is strictly in it, thank you.

Silver cut quite a figure in the west.

Blocks of five did not work this time.

Blacklisting got a black eye in Lucas.

Cold day—for republican office-holders.

The tin-plate liar has been laid to rest.

Mat Quay carried Pennsylvania as usual.

Bill McKinley's bill was turned down.

Ohio did not join the procession. Too bad.

Chairman Harrity is a four-time winner.

The "fat prophet" did nicely, thank you.

Toledoans were dead after the Ashley Jims.

And M. D. Harter, too. What a victory.

A cold day it was for the republicans, truly.

"We have met the enemy and they are ours."

We are in it, decidedly in it, don't you know.

Let's sing the doxology for the republicans.

The Billion dollar congress was condemned.

Grover, Grover, four years more of Grover!

What a walloping Ashley got in the Seventh!

Ben Harrison will return to Indiana March 4.

Good-by to the force bill and kindred measures.

Wayne MacVeagh was a few too many for Egan.

Judge Gresham knew a thing or two, didn't he?

Good-by, Jim. You can go back to New York now.

The country will prosper under Grover Cleveland.

Democracy ran rampant yesterday. Indeed it did.

A nipping frost bit the national republican party.

Our own Charley Foster will be out of a job soon.

And with the rest, a democratic United States senate!

Democrats will move into the government building.

The Bee's stereopticon was the popular fad last night.

Czar Reed will not rule the next house. This is official.

The smile around the court house can almost be heard.

Our prophets were in line this time by a large majority.

Ohio's gerrymander did not pan out as well as expected.

Chairman Harrity was the right man in the right place.

"Where are we at?" ask the republican officeholders.

Tariff reform has come to stay in this year of our Lord.

Will Toledo democrats have a jollification? And when?

What a fall was there, my countrymen, for Ben Harrison.

Our own Cal Brice did not chase any rainbows this time.

Whose picture is turned to the wall? All together, Ben's.

Jim Campbell of Ohio helped, and he will not be forgotten.

We believe Cleveland is defeated.—Blade. Well, he isn't.

The wildcat bank cry was rather in the nature of a boomerang.

Only one term for Brother Brown in the postoffice. Too bad.

The Hat and Rat ticket, as the Bee expected, was knocked out.

Yes, Ohio is safe. They did manage to pull the old man through.

Did you ever hear the like of it? What, never? Well, hardly ever.

Postmaster Brown and First Lieutenant Bones are packing up.

Toledo democrats went wild last night, but they had good reason.

Tom L. Johnson! Shake. The curly-headed statesman did nobly.

"Over-confidence" is the principal explanation of the republicans.

Governor McKinley's 58 speeches did not help the cause, evidently.

The nomination of Reid for the vice-presidency did not pay the reps.

What about the marshals in New York? They did not appear to be in it.

To be general, where were the republicans of the county at yesterday?

What become of the "rhino" wrung from the office-holders, anyway?

Senator Hill and Tammany played fair this time, and look at the result!

Mr. Cleveland will not be in it hereafter.—Blade. No, of course not.

President Cleveland's speech in New Jersey apparently did much good.

Jim Southard's inner sanctum sanctorum is somewhat deserted to-day.

Wood county re-elects its democratic sheriff, Dr. Bryant. Good enough.

Northwestern Ohio's Gibraltar of Democracy registered all right yesterday.

The National House will not be called upon to elect the president this time.

What about selling Buzzard Bay? Cleveland will move to Washington.

Col. Bonner ought to call out the naval reserve. This is too too for anything.

Tom Taylor was in the swim, as appears by the returns from the country.

Carnegie will remain in Scotland. It would be a good idea to wire for Frick.

Where was the Blade at in this campaign? It was disturbed about others.

"We know Byron Ritchie is beaten."—Blade, Tuesday. "Knowledge is power."

Organized labor gave Ashley a lick under the ribs with the rest of the opposition.

Roosters are being displayed in numerous quantities to-day by the democratic press.

Wanamaker, the postmaster-general, did not pay as an investment for Harrison.

Telegrams have been received by President Cleveland to-day in copious quantities.

The west and a portion of the north has lost its solidity for the republican party.

Just think of that democratic majority in New York and Kings counties! Immense.

Lucas county is still joined to its idols, but how Byron Ritchie swooped down on Ashley!

It was almost unanimous for our side. Republicans were scarcely considered in the race.

"See the Blade's great show to-night."—Blade, Tuesday. "Golly, did yer see it, Johnny?"

Secretary King, of the board of elections, at 11 o'clock conceded the election of Ritchie.

"We think Cleveland is beaten."—Blade, Monday. "What does that young fellow think with?"

Young Jim Ashley did not stay long at the election board last evening. Returns were off color.

Col. Waldorf has notified the Lima boys that he will be with them in the spring, tra la.

Adlai will not get a jag on over his victory, but over defeat to-morrow.—Blade. He he!

The police court attorney appears to have a few friends in Toledo and throughout the district.

Congressman Denny Donovan comes up smiling in the Fifth district, with several thousand to spare.

New York democrats secured a democratic colleague for Senator Hill in the election yesterday.

Harrison (at breakfast)—"Waiter, take away the salt and water; the sight of the stuff makes me sick."

Mike Jacobson goes into the council from the Second ward, and Moxie is the biggest man in town.

Hamilton, Griffin, Romeis, Kumler and the rest of the boys are in deep anguish(?) over Ashley's great run.

Putnam county has quit electing republicans. The democratic ticket went through slick and clean.

The defeat of Harvey Wylie in the Second was a grave mistake, for which the tax-payers will suffer.

Democrats did bet, notwithstanding the admonition not to do so. They are several shekels ahead as a result.

Whitelaw Reid's name was blown from the republican banner in Toledo. The rest of the country followed suit.

Byron Ritchie said the night before election that if he couldn't carry the city he wouldn't qualify. He can qualify.

Ex-Secretary W. C. Whitney will assist in running the Cleveland administration. He helped with his might to elect it.

"Mr. Cleveland will not be in it hereafter."—Blade, Tuesday. "Oh, wise young judge! Oh, excellent young man!"

Lucas county republicans continue in possession of the court house. What care they for the balance of the country?

Peck remains governor of Wisconsin, the bad boy. And Senator Sawyer retires, giving the state two United States senators.

Jim Ashley, junior, did not want the help of the politicians and the returns indicate that the help was not forthcoming.

Rub a dub dub, three men in a tub, Little Benny and Reed will now go to seed in the swamps at the head of Salt river.

Chairman Carter must be sorry he did not follow Campbell's example and refuse to accept the leadership of the republican forces.

Now, we'll have the old song of the ruination of the country, but the people are in first-class shape to laugh at the twaddle.

Mr. Egan will remain at Chile for a few months longer, after which he will have ample opportunity to write pronunciamentos.

Excuse us, dear readers, if there are any omissions in the Bee's regular quota of news. But really, this exuberance cannot be helped.

The government building did not need to be draped in mourning to-day. The faces of the occupants were black enough for all purposes.

The long distance telephone came into splendid play last night on it first introduction to politics. It told an o'er true tale, and no mistake.

The frantic appeals of the Commercial to "vote for Ashley" evidently had their effect. "Reaction is equal to action, in the opposite direction."

Now Wanny can go back to measuring calico, or will he close up his bazar and say, "I told you so?" Wanny knows a dollar when he sees it.

Democrats are more numerous than ever to-day. The republicans are "coming in out of the wet." Sorry they didn't declare themselves before.

Senator Hill has his rod in pickle for the presidential nomination four years hence. He is in much better form than he was a few months since.

There is some consolation in the thought that the protected monopolists were bled to the last shekel by Benny's campaigners, and now they are holding the bag.

Hamilton county democrats elect Johnny Hagerty as auditor by nearly 4,000, and Dr. Querner as coroner by nearly as great figures. Two good men.

"C. W." will have a fit of dyspepsia to-night when he hears of Ashley's triumphant election."—Blade, Tuesday. "Avoid rich food if you would avoid dyspepsia."

The Blade's stereopticon struck a snag early in the game last night and closed up shop. A republican machine could not work under such unfavorable circumstances.

"Ashley is running ahead in this ward," said the Blade last night, of the Ninth, putting the words unkindly into the mouth of Herman Baumbach. He ran behind in every precinct.

"The entire population of Toledo may be present to howl over the election of Harrison, Reid and Ashley."—Blade, Tuesday evening. "But, oh, what a difference in the morning!"

Ashley has gotten an idea of what the people of Toledo think of him. He found it much more difficult to secure indorsement at the polls than he did to capture the republican convention.

Carnegie (to Frick)—How much are we out?"
Frick—"Half a million."
Carnegie—"Well, squeeze it ont of those dearly beloved workingmen."

"Hon. James M. Ashley will be elected to congress by the time this paper reaches its readers. This information will do to bet on."—Blade, Tuesday. "A dull blade is a dangerous weapon, to its wielder."

"Republicans are invited to make themselves at home at Memorial hall and rejoice over the good news which the wires are sure to bring."—Blade, Tuesday eve. But the good news did not materialize.

Waldorf has "made other arrangements." Jim Brown feels done brown. Brother Rike can attend strictly to his duties as superintendent of carriers in the postoffice—for a while—without collecting political assessments.

By long distance telephone:
Chicago—"Hello, New York."
New York—"Hello."
Chicago—"Did you notice it?"
New York—"Well, I should say."
Both—"Shake."

A tip to the republicans: It is now time to pack up your poor little tin-plate factories, send the skilled laborers back to their homes in Wales, pay the bills, and pray Heaven to deliver you from the sin of an illustrious lie that run by machinery.

Ritchie received warm congratulations last night, and until he went home—about 2 o'clock a. m.—was calm, but confident. By none were good wishes more heartily expressed than by a number of republicans, many of whom displayed their manhood by voting for him, as a rebuke to purchased nominations and venal campaigns.

FROM MR. HARRITY.

This morning Vice-Chairman Eppstein received the following dispatch:

New York, Nov. 9, 7 a. m.

Hon. M. M. Eppstein, Chairman, Toledo, Ohio:

Cleveland's electoral vote is 270 sure. Twenty are in doubt, but in our favor. Glory enough. Congratulations.

W. F. HARRITY, Chairman.

YESTERDAY'S VICTORY.

The glorious victory achieved yesterday by an united democracy carries with it a stern lesson.

It is that the people, long suffering and patient, will revolt at any and all attempts to curtail their constitutional privileges.

The result is an emphatic protest against a high protective tariff, and more particularly against that stupendous fraud known as the McKinley bill.

It is a protest against that iniquitous and un-American piece of legislation, the Force bill.

It is a protest, stern and radical, against autocracy, is exemplified in the unseemly effort of Harrison to retain office through the manipulation of the great federal patronage behind him.

It is a protest that sounds the death knell of Carnegieism and Frickism, and crushes corruptionists and coercionists eternally.

But it is above, and beyond all, an indorsement of the great democratic doctrine of tariff reform—a revolt of the people against unjust taxation.

And last but not least, it is a splendid indorsement of the great and loyal leader of democracy, Grover Cleveland.

PRINCE OF WALES.

His Royal Highness Is Having a Time.

The Heir Apparent to the British Throne Has Passed His Fifty-First Birthday.

New York, Nov. 9.—A cable dispatch says: Flags are flying and church bells all over the country are pealing melody to-day; a loyal recognition of the birthday of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales. It was early on the morning of Nov. 9, 1841, that the booming of cannon announced to the people of London that a son and heir had been born to Queen Victoria and the prince consort, and hence the apparent to the throne and the future king of England—the latter contingency being based, of course, upon his surviving his venerable mother, reaches to-day his fifty-second year. Owing to the fact that the royal family is still in mourning for the death of the Duke of Clarence, the festivities which have marked the successive birthdays of the prince for the past decade are on this occasion abandoned.

All through the morning, however, the telegraph wires to Sandringham, where the prince and princess, with their children, the Princesses Victoria and Maud of Wales, are at present domiciled, have been loaded with messages of congratulation. One of the first to arrive was from the queen, who is paying her usual autumnal visit to Balmoral. It was a lengthy expression of the love and affection that the venerable sovereign holds for her eldest son.

The local offices of the express company were also kept busy during the morning in receiving and checking the gifts received from different parts of the United Kingdom and the continent, and up to 2 o'clock no less than three wagon loads had been delivered at Sandringham House. It is given out that one of the most valuable came from the Emperor William of Germany, although its exact nature has not yet been made public. Congratulations couched in warm language came from Mr. Gladstone and the Earl of Salisbury, respectively premier and ex-premier. There were also messages breathing good-will and many happy returns of the day from the corporation of the city of London, and the municipal bodies of Manchester, Birmingham, Bristol and other cities. The borough officials of Sandringham had proposed to wait upon the prince and present a loyal address, but the intention was abandoned at an intimation from Col. Knollys, private secretary to his Royal Highness to the effect that, while the prince appreciated the loyalty of his neighbors, he would prefer, in view of his recent overhelming bereavement, that the visit should be postponed until the period of mourning had been passed.

To-night there will be a private dinner party at Sandringham House, and at which the birthday gifts will be displayed to a few intimate friends of the prince and princess. There will, however, be numerous balls and banquets, public and private, to-night in different parts of the country in celebration of the anniversary. Dispatches from Ireland say that there are many outward tokens of recognition in the principal towns, a dispatch which is regarded as an augury of better feeling, especially in view of the fact that throughout Salisbury's administration the day was allowed to pass year after year without the slightest token of recognition beyond the hoisting of the Union Jack over Dublin castle, and the usual dinner tendered by the viceroy to his staff. In accordance with the custom he inaugurated several years ago the Prince of Wales will have a little celebration on his own account by swelling the coffers of several London hospitals and other charities through the medium of checks for substantial amounts.

NEW LINER

For the Lake Erie Transportation Company.

The Detroit Dry Dock Company Gets the Contract for Construction.

A week ago the Bee announced the fact that the Lake Erie Transportation company had decided to buy a new boat.

Yesterday the Detroit Dry Dock company was awarded the contract for the construction of the new freight steamer, to be completed before navigation opens next year.

The new liner will be placed on the line of Wabash freight carriers between Toledo and Buffalo.

Its cost will be $155,000.

The rapidly increasing business of the Wabash railroad has necessitated the new boat, which makes the fleet number five steamers, namely, the S. C. Reynolds, John G. Gault, Hopkins, Russell Sage, and the new liner.

FOUND DEAD.

London, Nov. 9.—Lord Charles Spencer Churchill, duke of Marlborough, was this morning found dead in his bed in Blenheim palace, Woodstock. He was 48 years of age.

HURRAH FOR HARTER!

He Has Been Elected to Congress.

Gerrymander Did Not Do Its Work.

He Overturns a Big Majority Set Up Against Him by Republicans.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 9.—(Special)—The most exhilarating contest for congress in Ohio was ended by amazing triumph of Hon. M. D. Harter over E. G. Johnson. The plurality is now steadily mounting toward 1,200, which is the reversal of the republican majority in the gerrymander district of 1,600.

Harter's gain is thus 3,000 votes and he has already been named for governor.

It now appears that he has even carried Huron county where the Bee did such effective work for him. He carries Richland by 2,200.

NEIGHBOR INDIANA.

It Will Be Safe for Grover Cleveland.

Chairman Taggart Says the Plurality Will Be Five Thousand.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—The vote in the state is close. Secretary Reilly, of the democratic state committee, makes a statement acquiesced in by Chairman Taggart, that Cleveland will have the state by 5,000. This is based upon returns from county chairmen.

Republican state headquarters were not open till late this morning. Chairman Gowdy arose with the impression that the state had gone for Harrison. He will not concede that the democrats have it. The legislature is democratic and the democrats have probably elected eight congressmen with a possibility of one more.

The republican gains over 1890 have been constant, and if maintained would give the state to Harrison by a few hundred. There are 2,995 precincts in the state.

The gain must be seven to the precinct over 1890 to give Indiana to the republicans. The News (independent) says the indications are that the democrats have been successful in the state by a small majority. Marion county will be democratic by 500 to 700. This figure may be greatly changed by later returns.

When the republicans closed business at 4 o'cock this morning Chairman Moores was still hopeful that the republicans would elect some of their ticket.

It was fully 9 o'clock before any activity was manifested at either the state or county republican headquarters. At the state headquarters Chairman Gowdy sat reading telegrams. As he read one to himself he burst out laughing. It was from a Kokomo man and read:

"For God's sake send me latest on Indiana, New York, Connecticut, Wisconsin, and Iowa and general results." Chairman Gowdy was asked what the claims of the committee were.

"I will say that the committee still claims the state by a small plurality. Our advices bear our claim out. We have just heard officially from Clinton county, which gives a majority of 300 and which is a republican gain of 60. In the light of present returns the state is safe for Harrison."

REPUBLICAN GAIN.

An Indiana County Which Gives Republicans Hope.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9.—Putnam county has elected the entire democratic ticket by 400 plurality, showing a republican gain of 200. Montgomery and Clay counties probably gone democratic, electing a senator and joint representative. The people's party polled a heavy vote in these counties. Fort Wayne—51 precincts show net democratic gain of 327 over 1890. Chairman Taggart of the democratic state committee claims 11 out of 13 congressmen.

At 10 o'clock the returns indicate that Cleveland has carried Indiana by a small plurality.

WOOD COUNTY.

A Democratic Sheriff Has Been Elected.

Bowling Green, Nov. 9.—(Special)—Harrison's plurality in Wood county is 569; Ashley, 492; Ridgely, 340. Bryant, democratic, for sheriff, was elected by 141 majority.

PRESS COMMENT.

The Tribune says: The republicans have been defeated in the national contest, but they have made the best fight they knew how. They have done nothing which they are ashamed of. They have left nothing undone which could be done honorably. Were they to fight the battle over again they would adopt neither new politics nor new methods.

Rats!

The republicans suffered, as they have done for the last 16 years, by the suppression of the votes of half a million of the southern members of the party and the loss of the electoral votes of four states, to which their candidates are entitled.

Old Crow.

The Inter-Ocean says: The American people have turned their backs on progress and given their adhesion to the anti-American ideas so popular across the Atlantic in a manner we thought them incapable of. At the time of this writing it looks as if Grover Cleveland had been elected to again preside in the white house for four years from the 4th of March next. It is possible that later returns may change this aspect, but not probable.

It looks like a landslide. The great state of Illinois and the city of Chicago appear to have joined the procession in honor of the master of Gray Gables and gone off to Buzzards bay. We say appear, because, though Chicago has gone beyond dispute, there is some hope that reports from the interior of the state, which are yet meager, may overcome Chicago's great majority. Though probably defeated, there is no reason why republicans should be cast down. They have made a good fight for principles and defeat doe not change or make less vital to the prosperity of the country the principles they fought for. Republicans can only hope that since their opponents are in power they will be allowed to engraft their ideas on the laws of the land and let the people judge from actual experience which are the wisest friends of the republic.

The Times says: After the quietest and most thoughtful canvass in the recent history of the republic 13,000,000 electors have spoken their wish.

"They have decided by what will prove a great popular majority that the mistake of four years ago shall be corrected and that the sturdy champion of tariff reform, the great popular leader who spoke in the interest of the people for a frugal government and the reduction of unnecessary taxation, shall again be called to the chief magistracy.

"The campaign of education commenced four years ago has gone on steadily until it has reached and convinced the popular intelligence. That end attained there is widespread condemnation of the atrocious policy of protection and in the election of Cleveland and Stevenson, as in the return of a democratic house, approval of the plan outlined in Cleveland's message of 1887 and only temporarily rejected in the general election of the succeeding year.

"No regret will ever be felt by a people who through quiet but effective use of the ballot have caused this great revolution. A democratic executive and a democratic legislature will use their power moderately and discreetly, but the essential reforms they have promised will be wrought out in good faith. The people have decided that there shall be no further exaction of tribute for particular industries from the general pocket and democracy in good time will give effect to that decision."

IT SEEMS A SHAME

That So Many Children Are Going to the Bad.

A Score of Young Boys and Girls in Police Court This Morning—Some of Them Steeped in Sin.

Sixteen small boys filed into police court this morning and strung themselves along on the prisoner's bench. Some were crying, others laughing and others still totally indifferent. It seems that nowadays the city court room is given up to children engaged in criminal pursuits. Just previous to the boys' case two young girls, Clara Rhodes and Louise Casey, the latter a pretty little blonde only 14 years of age, were arraigned on the charge of systematically robbing the Empire house and afterwards going with men to a house of prostitution. They have fathers and mothers and still are allowed to run wild. They will probably be sent to some institution. The Rhodes girl had been in the House of the Good Shepherd at Detroit, but rather than go back she said she would prefer the stoneyard.

Yesterday a city clergyman called at the police station. He was going to deliver a sermon on crime and its cause. He wanted some information on the subject. It was given him. He was told that if parents would know where their boys and girls were and would watch them, train them and care for them properly, 50 per cent. of the cases on the police docket would be abolished. The trouble lies largely with the parents. There is a certain class of people who let their children run wild. The harvest is now being reaped.

The boys under arrest are all little fellows. Their names, ages and residences are as follows:

Walter Hazelwood, age 13, 29 Superior; Fred Eckert age 12, 14 Superior; Frank Biossat, age 13, Merchants' hotel; Bruno LaLond, age 12, St. Clair and Lafayette; Frank Volk, age 11, 2 Bridge street; Harry Biossat, age 10, Merchants' hotel; Joseph Lalond, age 14, St. Clair and Lafayette; Joseph Kohn, 8 years, 32 St. Clair street; Jacob Kohn, 12 years, 32 St. Clair street; Eugene Mangus, 14 years, 312 Perry street; Isaac Silverberg, 11 years, 312 Perry street; Jacob Volk, 12 years, 37 Summit; John Kohn, 10 years, 32 St. Clair, and Bertie Mangus, age 15, 312 Perry.

The boys confessed to Detective Heinig that Joseph LaLond, the 14-year old son of Thomas LaLond, the hotel keeper on St. Clair street, was the leader of the gang. He was called Jack the Ripper, and he planned the work and selected the boys to do certain jobs. The gang has robbed as far as known, F. R. Frey & Co., Fisher, Eaton & Co., The Fair, the Burnett house, Colton & Hickox, Stewart & Co., and Dunscomb & Co. They took such articles as dolls, soaps, small parasols, poker chips, combs, books, false faces, feather dusters, marbles balls, wrenches, wall paper, whistles, drawing instruments, knives, lead pencils, pocket books, rubber bands, playthings, etc.

The court room was filled with articles brought as evidence.

Judge Sala said that technecalities should keep nothing in this case back. They must get to the bottom and see what it is that ruins so many young boys. They were too young to go to the workhouse, said the judge, and it would be a difficult matter to handle.

As it had reached the noon hour, at this point of the proceeding court adjourned until afternoon.

ACCORDING TO HOYLE.

West Virginia Will Vote for Grover Cleveland.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Democrats confidently claim election of all four of the congressmen from this state. Cleveland will undoubtedly be given the electoral vote of West Virginia and the election of the entire state ticket is generally conceded.

"MOTHER."

What visions of a happy past,
That home-like word to me recalls;
On list'ning ears it gently falls,
Like music far too sweet to last.
E'en still the sounds I often hear,
Like echoes of a soft-toned lute,
Sweet whispers of a voice long mute,
Which brightened life with words of cheer.

When first I gazed, an infant mild,
I saw my heaven in her eyes;
As mist before the sunlight flies,
My troubles vanished when she smiled.
As wider, farther, ranged my eyes,
And I looked on the world around,
How strangely old seemed all sweet sound,
Soft wind, bright stars and sunny skies.

As years roll on in heedless flight,
And I once more to heaven draw near,
Bringing sweet trust where once was fear,
And seeing all in truth's pure light,
I now can see that 'twas not strange
That nothing beautiful seemed new;
My mother's face, my earliest view,
Reflected landscapes' fairest range.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever see anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

THE BEE'S RETURNS

Were What the People Took in Last Night,

And We Had Good News to Furnish.

Republican Stereopticans Break Down Under the Heavy Weight —Democratic Rejoicing Everywhere.

It was shortly after 7 o'clock when the first bulletin was thrown from the Bee building on to a mammoth screen across the street. Almost the first bulletin led the crowd to believe that Cleveland would be elected and that belief strengthened as the minutes flew by. St. Clair street was packed from sidewalk to sidewalk. The street cars had to worry through a struggling, enthusiastic mass of humanity.

The young boys, and many of the old ones, were around with horns, and they tooted them incessantly. The crowd was joined by a drum corps and squads of 50 or 60 made occasional tours around the block to distribute enthusiasm. When the Bee thought the boys were not making noise enough, it put out a bulletin reading, "Holler, or you'll be discharged," and then the yelling kould commence again.

The Bee's bulletins captured the public fancy. Farther down the street another paper showed to a small house, and just around the corner another run in clothing advertisements and Ann Arbor time tables in hopes that some word of hope for Harrison would come over the wire, but alack the message never came, and the Blade shut up shop early in the game and went to bed.

The Bee's crowd hung on for six straight hours from 7 p. m. to 1 o'clock in the morning. At times such effusions as—

Little Benny
In the chair
Tries the working
Man to dupe.
Grover put a
Bent pin there.
Little Bennie's
In the soup

caught them great. They howled, not on account of the poetic worth, but because of the sentiment expressed.

"Ruth will take her milk in the white house" was also greeted with cheers.

The interior of the Bee office was as busy as the exterior. There were numerous visitors who helped the staff along by sitting on them, but then that didn't make any difference—the more the merrier on such glorious occasions.

At the rooms of the board of elections, in the Nasby building, the members of the board and the newspaper reporters got around their tables, with blanks all ready, to receive the returns from the city and county. They waited a long time; but were interested in the receipt of bulletins by telegraph and by long-distance telephone concerning the voting in other parts of the country. The figures from New York were among the first to come in, and bulletin after bulletin showed steadily a vote that would in proportion give Cleveland a majority of 70,000 in the city. This was confirmed later, and as returns from the northern part of the state showed republican losses, assurance was given of democratic victory.

Democratic gains were shown in Connecticut and Illinois, such as to almost assure both these states to Cleveland, before any of the local returns came in. It was Mr. Tolerton's turn to get even on the republican members of the board.

The first precinct of the city to be heard from was A of the Third ward, which showed 105 for Ritchie against 101 for Ashley—Byron running ahead and Ashley behind his ticket. Next came precinct A of the Sixth ward, showing very straight democratic voting. Here Ritchie again ran ahead and Ashley behind the other candidates; and such a state of affairs kept steadily up, and in five precincts Ashley did not run behind his ticket.

Young Jim was on hand and took a seat at a table pencil and paper in hand, to figure out "father's majority." As return after return showed "the old gentleman" running behind the son, shortly before 11 o'clock acknowledged that he

Ohio's Cal Rejoices With Us.

He then asked if there were any returns from the county, and was told he could get them at the Blade office. In a few minutes he left, to try and get some grain of comfort on the outside, as it was plain the city was going against "pa." Nobody appeared to be sorry at all.

As the night wore on, bulletins by telegraph and long distance telephone continued to come in.

The first news by the long distance line had been democratic, and republicans objected that it had no republican figures. When its news was confirmed by the telegraphic reports, and everything seemed to be going democratic, doubts began to be expressed for Ohio.

The news from Illinois was such as to enable the observers to readily tell who were democrats and who republicans in the room, by the expression on their faces. Several visitors looked in during the night, democrats smilingly, and republicans with subdued looks, and when one or two federal office holders were informed concerning the Ashley vote they went home.

At midnight there were still about half a dozen precincts in the city to hear from. The board took a recess and a supper laid in an adjoining room. After the members of the board had eaten they invited the "press gang" to partake, an invitation that was promptly accepted, the taking of returns waiting the while. All but one or two of the returns were in when supper was over, and they were quickly added to the schedule. The last to come in was that from precinct F of the Ninth ward and all were in before 1:30 a. m., the best time ever made in such an important election. A few minutes were spent in adding and obtaining ward figures and the total vote in the city for different candidates, and the little company dispersed, some to rejoice, others to indulge regrets and wonder how it happened.

Enthusiasm on the Streets.

The democrats had a chance to celebrate last night and they did so. Nobody thought of going home. At 2:30 a. m. the streets were full of pedestrians, every corner had its knot of the faithful ones waiting for the latest bit of gossip. Crowds of otherwise staid and respectable men followed the small boys with their drums and helped them to "holler."

The calithumpians were out in full force and strong lungs. The democrats in these parts don't get an opportunity to let loose often and they appreciate an outing. While they die hard, and they have been many times dead, they know Phoenix-like how to arise again.

Democratic Headquarters.

A special wire distributed the news to a surging, cheering throng. Mr. Eppstein presided, and as the announcements were made the cheers, which shook the hall, were taken up and re-echoed on the street.

It was a jubilant throng, and the gains for Ritchie in Lucas were greeted with the greatest cheering.

With Our Friends the Enemy.

"Great Heavens! What hit us?"

Republicans stand around to-day awe-stricken and silent, with the above expression written plainly on every countenance.

A judge in one of the election booths said to a Bee this morning: "You would have been surprised at the way people voted yesterday. Why, in one precinct where there are only 33 democrats, there were 70 straight democratic tickets voted. The republican business men—well-known men, too—invariably voted the straight democratic ticket."

With a slow, mournful tread, that reminds one of friends at a funeral passing in to take a last look.

Within, what few can bear the oppressive influence stand about, heads close together, speaking in tones scarcely above a whisper.

Occasionally one, more light-hearted than the others, endeavors to shake off grim depression, and jolly up the boys, by telling the old story of county victories, but the mournful expression on all faces only deepens, and the mantle of gloom draws closer.

This is too much for the dispenser of good cheer, and after one long reproachful look upon the face of the god of protection portrayed upon the wall, utters one piteous wail, "Oh, that it had been turned to the wall years ago," flees from this scene of distraction as he would from pestilence.

Hark! The silence is broken.

Why do the faces blanch, and strong men quake with fear?

Is it a voice from spirit land?

No, the words are from human lips.

Jim Southard had gasped in the agony of despair, "Where are we at?"

The County Ticket.

In the general jubilee the Lucas county ticket has almost been lost sight of. The fact is the republicans were successful, electing Gus Wendt, recorder; J. L. Pray, commissioner; Thos. Crofts, infirmary director; and Joe Hoffman, surveyor. The majorities range from 800 to 1,200. Judge Scribner carries Lucas, as does Judge Pugsley.

NOTES.

The Ashley managers and their followers died hard.

Bob Adams is glad he resigned that secretaryship.

Max Eppstein wears a broad smile in addition to his clothes and board.

R. Kiser and Henry Dick, a democratic Swiss, made a bet of a cent, the winner to buy a keg of beer. Dick wanted to win that cent.

Mayor Emmick and Judge Millard sent their compliments to the judges and clerks of precinct D, First ward, in the shape of oysters and refreshments during the count last evening.

Two young men in a Summit street store bet on the presidential election, and as a result the republican has, within two weeks, to ride the democrat in a wheelbarrow along Summit street for a block or two.

The judges and clerks almost froze to death in some of the booths. The wind sailed in through the wide cracks and all the heat in the fires was sucked up the chimneys. Quite a number are laid up with colds to-day.

also appeared to have disappeared. The stranger ran into the crowd coming from the Nasby building, and asked where was Bob at. Nobody could tell him. He had been to Memorial hall, and found nobody there. He was directed to republican headquarters; but when the building was pointed out to him it was all dark. The lights had been put out, and those who had hoped so long, and boasted so loudly, had gone home muttering maledictions on McKinley and anathematizing Ashley as a "hoodoo."

COUNCILMAN JACOBSON

Chosen to Succeed Mr. Tanner in the Second Ward.

The contest in the Second ward resulted in the defeat of the democratic nominee, Mr. J. H. Wylie. The vote was as follows:

	Wylie.	Jacobson
Precinct A	146	145
Precinct B	142	131
Precinct C	84	196
Precinct D	178	114
Total	550	586
Jacobson's majority		36

REPUBLICAN REMARKS.

Most of Them Surprised at Their Credulity.

Postmaster Brown, when asked how he accounted for the result of the election, said: "The people voted the democratic ticket. You can't account for these things. They come without accounting."

Col. Waldorf, collector of internal revenue, acknowledged that he was badly mistaken, and that "private information" he had received was wrong.

Other expressions heard from republicans were these:

"We ain't in it at all, are we?"

"I can't see how it is."

"There's something wrong somewhere."

"Ashley should have carried it."

"If the county had given its regular republican vote Ashley would have been elected."

"Because Ritchie was born and went to school in this town lots of republicans voted for him."

"I was reading the Perrysburg Journal, and it said if Ashley was defeated he'd go out of the district. Let's see if he will."

"The railroad men had a good deal to do with it. They voted against him all day."

"If we put up a man to be knocked down, what can we expect?"

"These papers came out the day before election and said the railroad men had indorsed Ashley—the switchmen and the railroad men generally. That made them all mad."

"If Blaine had been nominated he would have been elected."

LATE MARKETS.

The wheat market opened 1-4 to 3-8c lower, but very soon became firmer, and advanced at Chicago 1 3-4c on the basis of the December future.. It is claimed as a basis of the advance that the market is over sold and the shorts are doing the plunging to get even.

Corn—No. 2 for May at 48c. Cash about plemented with some outside purchases of those who want to get aboard if the market is to be permanently higher.

Corn has also been stronger, and December at Chicago advanced 1 1-8c.

At the close wheat had lost 3-4c and corn 1-2c from the highest point.

In New York November wheat closed at 75 7-8c, December at 77 1-8c and May at 84 1-4c, a gain on each of 7-8c. November corn at 50c and December at 51c, a loss on each of 1-4c; May at 53 1-2c, a gain of 1c. November oats at 36 1-2c, a gain of 1-4c.

In Chicago November wheat closed at 71 7-8c, a gain of 7-8c; December at 73 1-4c, a gain of 1c; May at 79 1-8c, a gain of 7-8c. November corn at 42 1-2c, a gain of 3-8c; December at 42 5-8c, a gain of 1-4c; May at 47 1-2c, a gain of 5-8c.

In Toledo the trading in wheat futures has been rather more active than usual, but does not represent a large business. The market has been stronger but is very quiet. Prices are better. Opening trades were at 1-4c decline, but the market soon became firm, and at close the advance was 1c. On the call December sold at 72 1-2c, and May at 78 3-4 to 3-4 to 7-8c. On the regular board December sold at 72 3-4 to 74c. May at 78 3-4 to 80c.

Cash wheat dull and especially for No. 2 soft of which a few cars sold at 72c early. At close 72 1-2c was the market a gain of 3-4c. A little more business was reported in No. 3 soft at 64 1-4 to 1-2c, a gain of 3-4c. No. 4 soft at 56c L. S. Hard No. 2 at 68c, No. 3 at 63c. Corn—No. 2 for May at 48c. Cash about 42c, No. 3 at 41c. Rye—No. 2 at 53c, No. 3 at 47 1-2 to 48 1-2c. Rejected at 38c.

Clover seed was again active and further advanced. December at $7

LORD MAYOR.

A Grand Celebration in London.

Fine Decorations Mark and Wen in the History of English Politics.

New York, Nov. 9.—A dispatch from London says: Pomp, ceremony and scenes of unusual splendor marked to-day the inauguration as lord mayor of London of the first member of the Roman Catholic denomination to be chosen to that high office since the reign of bloody Queen Mary.

Despite the efforts of the "no popery" element, and which after failing to compass the defeat of Mr. Stuart Knill in the court of aldermen, had endeavored to organize an hostile demonstration on the occasion of his passage through the streets to-day, the "Lord Mayor's Show" was accorded an enthusiastic reception.

Elaborate precautions had been taken by the police department to suppress any disturbance in its incipiency, and scores of detectives mixed with the crowd in every block, but they were not required to exercise their authority, for the few hoots and groans, and cries of "no popery" that were heard here and there were drowned in the roar of applause which swept like a prairie fire from Guild hall to the law courts.

The procession was the most gorgeous affair of recent years, and contained many new and striking features, in addition to the "beef eaters," firemen, foresters, life boat men, keepers of Epping forest, and the many other time-honored accessories of the occasion. About every adherent of the Roman Catholic faith seemed to have turned out in honor of Lord Mayor Knill, and the scene of enthusiasm that greeted his appearance at numerous points along the route have never been exceeded in London's streets.

Nearly every building along the route taken by the procession was handsomely and profusely decorated. The pageant left Guild hall at 10 o'clock and proceeded via Gresham street, Moorgate and Queen Victoria street, Upper Thames street, Canon street, St. Paul's churchyard, Ludgate hill and Fleet street to the new law buildings, where Lord Mayor Knill was formally received by the lord chancellor. From the courts the procession moved along the Strand, Charing Cross, Northumberland avenue and the Victoria Embankment back to Guild hall.

This afternoon the annual lord mayor's banquet is in progress in the big banqueting hall of this historic structure. Contrary to the practice which has prevailed for over 100 years the premier is absent from the festive board, and no declaration of the proposed policy of his government can therefore be officially made.

Mr. Gladstone's action has created a painful feeling among Catholics, despite the explanation that he had made an engagement which cannot be broken before the fact that this was lord mayor's day had occurred to him.

STORY OF A REVOLVER.

Though the Weapon Was in the Sea, the Crime Went Not Unrevenged.

I was walking along the dock that afternoon, when I ran into a tramp who was fumbling over a heap of rubbish in an ash barrel.

He fished out an old revolver. Barely had his hand touched the weapon than he threw the pistol to the ground. Turning to me, he said:

"I would like to take that iron with me."

"Well, there it is."

"No, not for worlds."

"You are crazy."

"I am not. How do I know what may have been done with that revolver? Might it not have been used in some killing scrape? You know, it's a superstition among thieves and murderers to throw away their shooting irons. It is considered bad luck to hold 'em."

"Why so?"

"Oh, there's no telling. Now, this revolver," he said, "might have taken a man's life for all I know. There are rust stains on the handle. See for yourself."

I looked closely. There were dull stains there. These might possibly have been caused by human blood. But only the microscope could determine that definitely now.

"Maybe the man who fell before this gun was robbed of his money; maybe he had a home and family; maybe it was some atrocious midnight surprise."

As the tramp said this he looked intently at the engine of death in a reflective fashion. Then, with a sudden movement, he threw it far out in the tide.

I thought no more of the incident.

Four months later my business took me to a small town in Connecticut.

"You are just in time," said a friend; "there's to be lots of sport here to-day."

"How so?" I said inquisitively.

"Well, we're to have a hanging bee. We're going to make a man swing for a bloody crime. Here is his picture in the paper."

I looked and started with surprise.

It was the face of my tramp friend.—New York Herald.

HISTORY OF FOOTWEAR.

The Old Days in New England, When "Scuffs" Were Furnished to Guests With the Candle.

The first shoes for women's wear with heels that had been made since the early part of the century were produced about 1855. Very speedily they were adopted on all women's shoes. The first heels were not shapely. They were made concave about 1857. Women's shoes were made "straight" up to about 1840. The first set of "right and left" lasts were brought from Philadelphia in 1822 by Daniel Silsbee, who manufactured at Woodend, in Lynn.

The style was adopted at first only on side lace gaiters. These gaiters came into vogue about 1835. They laced inside. For many years only the best workmen were trusted to make these goods. The material was first Italian cloth, afterwards lasting and serge.

For several months in 1837 no shoes were made in Lynn except "scuffs." The scuff was a sheepskin slipper, with a vamp sewed to the sole and without any quarter. Workmen who were so fortunate as to get some of these to do could make 30 cents a day producing them. At all the hotels 50 years ago scuffs were furnished with the candle when the guests went to bed.

ALL NIGHT IN A CAVE.

Two Girls Tried to Explore It, But Found It a Prison.

Sallie Kimiter Moss of Athens, Ga., and a young woman companion, while taking a midday stroll at Tallulah Falls, in that state, decided to explore Grand cavern. Down the winding descent they clambered until they could go no further. Then, turning to retrace their steps, they were horrified to find that they were unable to ascend the steep cliffs they had passed down.

Effort after effort failed, and when overcome with exhaustion they sat down in the cavern to wait to be discovered. At home the parents and friends of the fair prisoners became alarmed when night fell, and, supposing that the girls had become imprisoned in the hills, relief parties were organized. All night they searched in vain.

About 10 o'clock the prisoners saw the lanterns of the searching parties, but could not shout loud enough to attract their attention, and remained prisoners in plain view of their friends. About 10 in the morning Will Moses heard their cries and discovered their location, but found he could not reach them. Ropes were soloed together until long enough to reach the bottom of the cavern. The young women tied the rope around their waists and were drawn out.

APPALLING FIGURES,

Mrs. McSwat's Statistics Were Not Approved by Her Husband.

Mrs. McSwat—Billiger, how often do you get shaved?

Mr. McSwat—About four times a week on an average.

"How much time does it usually require?"

"About half an hour."

"Half an hour four times a week! That's two hours a week, four and one-third days in a year, and nearly a month and a half in ten years. Think of it, Billiger, if you should let your beard grow you would save time enough in ten years—"

"But look here, Lobelia! Great Scott! I don't want to let it grow. Did you ever see me with a full set of whiskers?"

"No, but—"

"Well, let it be the cause of the most heartfelt joy and gratitude you ever experienced, Lobelia, that you never did! With a full beard, madam, I look like a cocoanut in a fit of delirium tremens. I tried it once, years ago.

"Dogs barked at me on the street, children fled from me in terror, footpads who caught a glimpse of me by moonlight, or the pale, flickering rays of a street lamp, dropped their sandbags and slunk tremblingly up the alleys, and I was offered $60 a week and all expenses by a dime museum man for a year's engagement. My portrait was hawked all over the country as the most hideous—"

"I don't believe any of that stuff, Billiger, and I'm sure—"

"Don't interrupt me, madam. My beard grows straight out, up, down, sideways, every bristle for itself, like the spines on the fretful chestnut burr, and it grows in every shade and color, from brindle to vermillion and back again. If you could see me once with a hedge fence all over my face you would—"

"But think of the time you lose in—"

"The time I lose! Look here! How often do you fix your hair?"

"Every day of my life, of course, but that's different."

"That's different, is it, hey? How long does it take you to fix it?"

"I think you're just as—"

"You needn't answer. I know how long it takes. I've seen you do it often enough. It takes you half an hour every blessed day of your life to look after your frizzes, if that's what you call them.

"Think of it! Half an hour a day, three hours and a half a week, nearly eight days in a year, an entire month in four years, a whole year in 48 years, and over two years in a century! Lobelia, you'd better go and look after the baby."

DEVELOPMENT OF MIND.

The Analogy Between the Awakening of Intelligence in Young Children and Among Animals.

Resuming at this point our comparison of animal with infant traits, we have learned to expect mental similarity only in such animals as in their adult condition surpass at least in certain respects the capabilities of the human infant at birth. Within this range we find abundant points of community of various degrees of value and familiarity. The playfulness that is characteristic of children is no less so of kittens, nor is their imitativeness more typical than that from which the word "to ape" has been derived. Curiosity, inventiveness, dislike of ridicule, love of being fondled, craving for attention, with the resulting jealousy and anger when such attention is refused, are types of more complex emotions common to intelligent animals and children. Indeed, the terms of familiarity so often found and so easily established between children and their pets cannot but be based, in part at least, upon a deep sympathy and community of emotional life. On the intellectual side correspondences are no less frequent and significant, but are difficult to describe and analyze. M. Perez, a discerning student of children, has carefully recorded the life histories and early trials of two pet kittens, and found constant occasion to draw analogies between the kittens and the infants. Both show at parallel stages of development the appearance of the same faculties, often in strikingly similar forms. Just as infants learn to distinguish between men and women, between persons differently dressed, between old and young, kindred and stranger, so an intelligent dog learns to distinguish between men and women, between visitors and beggars, between strangers and friends of the family, between those who will fondle him and those who will not.—Joseph Jathrow, Ph. D., in the Popular Science Monthly.

THE MORNING BATH.

Even Though Your Room Is Cold, Don't Neglect Your Toilet.

Soon the days will be crisp and snappy and when you awake in the morning and thrust one bare foot out from under the covers you will give a little smothered "ouch" and cuddle down under the blankets again. Every one knows the kind of morning we mean, when the window panes are covered with delicate traceries left by the gentle Jack Frost, and when a compromise is effected by putting on one's stockings and shoes in bed.

Now it is just this kind of weather that makes us neglect our toilet. We hurry through our ablutions, giving a little dab at our face—an apology for a good wash—and get down-stairs as quickly as we can. When we do go out-doors we are shivery and creepy, we don't feel more than half awake and we are very uncomfortable altogether.

Of course it is ever so much nicer to bathe in a warm room in tepid water and go through every detail of the day's toilet with a leisure that is a positive luxury, but when the weather prohibits don't neglect the details on that account. A cold sponge bath, exposing but one portion of the body at a time, followed by a quick brisk rubbing, sets your blood to tingling, your flesh glows with a warm tint and you feel like a bird, not a half-awakened creature who has but one aim, and that is hug the fire.

If the sponge bath seems too lengthy an operation, at least bathe the neck, arms and face well with soap as well as water. There is nothing so good for the complexion as a regulation scrub, and nothing that will so soon make it muddy as the little dab that many women consider equivalent to a genuine bath.

HE WAS CURIOUS.

And He Received His Money's Worth of Information.

A well-known newspaper man, whose custom it is to take long walks in the suburbs, one day, a week or so ago, as he passed an orchard, noticed all the trees but one were well filled with apples.

"That's strange," he remarked to his companion, a brother journalist.

"What's the reason, do you imagine?" asked the other.

"Here comes a boy, I'll ask him;" and the journalist tackled the boy.

"Fine apples you have," he said, with an air of freedom and acquaintance with the facts.

"They are so," replied the boy.

"Where do you sell them mostly?"

"We don't sell 'em. Make cider."

"Ah, are they cider apples?"

"Course; couldn't make cider if they wasn't."

"Very true. By the way, my boy, I notice one tree over there by the fence hasn't an apple on it. Do you know why that is?"

"Of course I do."

"Well, my friend here and I are a little curious, and would like you to tell us, if you will. Here's a dime for your trouble and loss of time."

"Certainly. It's 'cause it's a pear tree mostly."

The man of inquiring mind hung his head and went on with a firm resolve to refrain from curiosity in the future.

HOW MUCH THE WORLD EATS

It's Enough to Make a Caterer's Fortune in a Day.

How much the human race eats in a day can only be answered approximately, but at the same time a fairly accurate estimate can be arrived at.

The average healthy man eats nearly two and a half pounds of solid food in a day. Some races eat much more than others, but against this we can set the smaller consumption of children and the delicate members of civilized communities.

Now, as there are, according to the most careful computations, 1,497,000,000 human beings on the planet, we may conclude that 3,607,770,000 pounds, or about 1,610,612 tons of solid food are eaten every day the world over.

With regard to the drinking capacity of the human race, as the proper individual allowance is nearly two and three-quarter pints a day, we may take it that the above-named quantity of food is washed down with about 4,047,688,000 pints of liquid in some form or other.

A NEW SALAMMBO.

She Attracts the Attention of Intelligent People.

An aged negress of great repute as a "voodoo," or witch doctress, among the negroes of Terre Bonne, La., is attracting much attention, not only from those of her own color, but from the more intelligent portion of the community, and the way she does this is to apparently swallow a number of small snakes of a variety unknown in this section. They are of a dusky color, nearly black, pied by a dark green about the flat head and of a dirty white in the belly. These reptiles remain secreted about old Nance's cabin until she gives a peculiar whistling call, when they will come to her, wriggling in great haste over the floor, up her dress, and run into her open mouth, hissing hideously. They disappear and remain hidden sometimes for minutes. She asserts that they are concealed in her stomach until she recalls them, when they will come pouring out to writhe about her scraggy neck and coil in her bosom.

Where the snakes really go when they vanish in her mouth is a mystery, and has puzzled all the physicians about, many having come from New Orleans to witness the phenomenon, says the St. Louis Republic. Some really believe that the snakes go down into the stomach, while others are convinced the witch is simply playing some sleight-of-hand trick on them; but if the latter is the case, it is so cleverly done that there is no detecting the performance.

The witch presents a most extraordinary and hideous appearance, sitting with the snakes darting their flat heads in and out of her toothless mouth, with their little bead-like eyes snapping as if in fury at all about their mistress. As nearly as they can be counted there are six or seven of these reptiles, though old Nance says there are many more, but they are all so much of a size and color that they cannot be identified. They are probably of a harmless nature, though old Nance declares they are highly pisonous, and no one wishes to expreniment with them.

TOBACCO SMOKING.

Some Remarks Thereon by a Competent Medical Authority.

Nearly all excessive smokers are dyspeptics. Smoking is bad for everybody, especially for women and children. At the same time, why paint it blacker than it is? Tobacco has never led the reason astray, destroyed the will or perverted sensibility, says the New York Medical Record. The most hardened smoker enjoys perfect clearness of mind. Then the habit of smoking, unlike alcoholism and morphino-mania, can be broken up permanently. Tobacco has none of the seductions and dangers of opium and hashish, of ether, chloral, and alcohol. Its action on the nervous system is weak and wholly especial. It does not put to sleep, but it calms and mollifies the sensibility of the organs. It causes an agreeable torpor during which thought continues lucid and the capacity for work undiminished. Such is the attraction that it exercises, and which causes it to be sought for by so many thinkers and students.

FORTUNE'S FAVORITE.

A Youthful Creede Gambler Whose Good Luck Is a Marvel.

The luckiest and most persistent gambler in Creede, Col., is a 15-year-old consumptive boy who goes by the name of "Lucky Kid," and claims to be the son of one of the wealthiest merchants in this city, says the New Orleans Picayune. He was taken to Crede from Denver by three of the biggest sports, who look upon his as a veritable mascot, and who consult him as an oracle. But it is tempting the fates too far for him to play their money and he leads the trio in all plays by using the money of a woman, Left-Handed Mollie, who constantly sits at his side during the paly, and who has such an abiding confidence in his luck and judgment that she has him carry her purse all the time, never questioning him as to the craft she makes upon it. "Lucky Kid" has a decided penchant for faro, but when the cards don't run to suit him he switches to craps, and plays them so highly that the doleful monotone of the sleepy genius who presides over the cribbed semi-circular table as he drawls, "All down," is changed to a livlier measure, and dreads the boy as he does no other two-score plungers in the camp. Lucky Kid won $350 at craps in less than one hour one night, and was in a fair swing to "bust the game" when the banker shut him off. At another time he won $1,100 at faro for Left-Handed Mollie, and so hilarious did it make her that he blew it all in, with $200 more, on a ball and banquet, to "the gang." Lucky Kid never takes a drink and he is as quiet and earnest as a Quaker. He plays in a business way, and handles his chips with as much care as a bank cashier his coin and currency.

To get drinking water, filter through coffee paper into a carafe and add seltzer till the turbidness resulting at first disappears. The cement contains so much free lime that the killing of the bacilli is certain. The dissolved lime is converted by the carbonic acid of the seltzer into bicarbonate of lime, the substance to which mountain water owes its freshness. The cement must be fresh and must not have lain beside smelling substances. Five pfennigs' (a little more than a half-penny) worth of seltzer suffices for five litres of water.

SMOKED FOR OVER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco
Has been popular with smokers everywhere for over twenty-five years.
It is Just as Good Now as Ever.
Its FLAVOR, FRAGRANCE and PURITY have contributed largely to the growing popularity which pipe smoking enjoys. Pipe smoking is growing in favor because finer, sweeter and better tobacco can be had in this form and at much less cost than in cigars.

PROF. BRIGGS.

His Trial To Be Taken Up in New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—The trial of Prof. Charles A. Briggs of Union Theological Seminary on the famous charge of heresy, commenced this afternoon before the New York Presbytery, sitting in the audience room of the South Presbyterian church. It will be a memorable trial, and one which is likely to leave its imprint for many generations to come upon the doctrine and policy of this great denomination. The great amount of public interest manifested in the forthcoming proceedings is evidence of the fact that, although the trial was not formally commenced until 2 o'clock, a crowd began to assemble at the main audience door of the sacred edifice long before noon, and upon the doors being opened the space allotted to the general public was quickly filled to overflowing. The trial is to continue daily, except Saturdays and Sundays, until it is finished.

The present status of the case is this. The federal assembly which met at Portland, Oregon, last May, refused to accept the Presbytery's dismissal of the charges against the professor, and ordered the Presbytery to proceed with the trial. At the October meeting of the body the judgment of the general assembly was submitted, and the committee on prosecution announced that it was ready to proceed to trial.

Thereupon it was decided that the proceedings should commence to-day and continue until a verdict had been reached. The prosecuting committee comprises Rev. Drs. H. F. Sample, of the Westminster church; J. J. Lampe, of Christ church; Dr. G. W. F. Birch, Prof. J. J. Stevenson, Col. John J. McCook, and these will have the assistance in consultation of Dr. W. T. G. Shedd, the emeritus professor in the seminary; Dr. Geo. L. Shearer of the American Tract society, and Dr. Charles L. Robinson, the latter having been for over a generation a prominent Presbyterian pastor in this city. Prof. Briggs will act as his own counsel. The charges against him contain two separate allegations:

(1) "With teaching doctrines which conflict irreconcilably with, and are contrary to, the cardinal doctrine taught in the holy scriptures and contained in the standards of the Presbyterian church, that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the only infallible rule of faith and practice."

(2) "With teaching a doctrine of the character, state and sanctification of believers after death which irreconcilably conflicts with, and is contrary to, the holy scriptures, and the standards of the Presbyterian church."

FOUND A CAVE.

Harrisonburg, Va., Nov. 9.—A cave was discovered about eight miles east of Harrisonburg near the village of Keckletown, Saturday evening. It has not been fully explored yet, but it is said to rival the Luray caverns in size and grottoes and in beauty. The cave was discovered while blasting for rock. Twenty-four rooms have been discovered without the aid of pick or shovel. Persons from the neighborhood are flocking to see. Specimens of stalactites were brought into town yesterday.

AGAINST AMNESTY.

London, Nov. 9.—The Times this morning prints a three-column article recounting the dynamite outrages and protesting against the granting of amnesty to the men who were engaged in them. It says: "We cannot reach the miscreants who direct and subsidize the plots from Chicago and New York, but by stern enforcement of the law we may hope to dampen the eager 'heroism' of their subordinates."

ADJUSTED WAGES.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 9.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Grand Trunk have just made a satisfactory readjustment of the scale of wages for the entire system. There was no dispute and no threat of trouble, and both sides came together in the utmost harmony. The arrangement will go into effect on January 1, and will extend over a period of two years.

HEAVY LOSS.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 9.—A fire in the four-story brick building, 171 to 187 Wallabout street, Williamsburg, caused a loss of $130,000. The building was occupied by the New York Steel and Copper Plate company; Jacob, silk ribbon manufacturer, and other smaller firms. The loss is divided among them. The cause of the fire is unknown.

COLD BLOODED MURDER.

Stoughton, Mass., Nov. 9.—Two boys named Ray F. Wood and Charles Doyle were in a woodshed near the house of Fred Capen, in North Stoughton, when an unknown man came out of the woods with a gun on his shoulder. On seeing the boys he took aim at them and fired, shooting Doyle, killing him. The man then escaped into the woods. The affair has occasioned much excitement and searchers are scouring the woods for the murderer.

HEAVY GALES.

New York, Nov. 9.—The British steamer Scottish Prince, which arrived this morning from Den'a, experienced terrible gales and met with considerable damage since passing Gibraltar. Her ventilators were carried away, rails and deck-house smashed and boats and cabin filled with water until everything was adrift.

OUT IN A GALE.

New York, Nov. 9.—The steamer Aller, which arrived this morning from Bremen has 231 cabin and 20 steerage passengers. She experienced severe weather, northwest gales and high seas.

COLLISION.

A Flagman Was Asleep When He Should Be on Duty.

Greenville, O., Nov. 9.—No. 4, the northbound passenger train on the Mackinaw railroad telescoped the northbound gravel train about a mile south of this city. The engine pulling the gravel train ran out of coal, and cut loose from the train and ran into town and coaled up, and while being turned jumped the track and was unable to get back to the train. John Daugherty, the brakeman of the gravel train, was asleep in the caboose, instead of being back flagging the passenger train, which was nearly due.

The passenger came along at the rate of 40 miles an hour, and the gravel train was not seen in time to stop. The passenger engine dashed through the caboose, where the brakeman was sleeping and on through, telescoping five loaded gravel cars.

It then turned over and rolled down the steep embankment and lies one-third buried in the mud. C. M. Huffy, the engineer, and Ed Conway, the fireman of the passenger engine, both jumped just as the engine started down the embankment.

Both were seriously injured about the back and internally. Daugherty, the brakeman, was cut and mangled in a terrible manner and cannot possibly survive the shock. About 20 passengers were aboard and were all hurt more or less. C. R. Hedrick, a C., H. & D. mail clerk, and wife, were passengers on the train and both were badly injured. The damage done to the engine, cars and track will be about $30,000.

INTERNATIONAL QUESTION.

Canada and the United States Have a Dispute.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 9.—Correspondence has taken place recently between the Dominion authorities, through Her Majesty's Charge d' Affairs at Washington, and the United States government with regard to a breach of international law by United States officers conveyed a British subject named Emerson Omar, who had been arrested for bigmay at Houston, Me., to Calais, Me., a journey of 90 miles, the greater portion of which was made through the province of New Brunswick. The permission of the Canadian government to conduct Omar through Canada in the custody of United States officers was not asked, and the facts were duly reported to the authorities at Ottawa by Dr. Atkinson, of Oak Hill, Charlotte county, N. B., acting on Omar's behalf.

When the attention of the United States government was called to the matter the secretary of state caused inquiries to be made and a reply has just been received from Secretary Foster in which he recognizes the impropriety of an American officer taking a prisoner through any portion of Her Majesty's dominions without obtaining the previous consent of the authorities and expressing regret for the occurrence.

The opinion prevails here that Omar ought to be liberated by the United States government, his case being much on a par with that of the boy Gale, who was liberated from a Canadian reformatory by the Dominion government at the request of the American authorities a short time ago.

MISPLACED SWITCH.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 9.—A collision occurred at Suspension Bridge between passenger trains on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg and Michigan Central railroads, caused by a misplaced switch. The trains were moving slowly and the damage done was not great. S. M. Chesebro, of Pulaski, N. Y., mail agent, was severely cut and bruised. Several others received slight bruises. The accident was due to the carelessness of a switchman.

CATTLE TROUBLE.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 9.—The Dominion government has asked the imperial authorities for an extension until the 21st inst. of the time in which live cattle might be shipped to England, pointing out the serious loss in which cattle exporters will be involved owing to breaches of contract if such extension is not granted. No reply has been received yet.

HEIR TO $300,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—Information has just been received here from California that Barney Dunning, an inmate of the city poor farm here, has fallen heir to an estate valued at $300,000. The fortune was bequeathed to Dunning by hi brother William, who went to California in 1849, accumulated large wealth and died recently, leaving the estate to his brother Barney.

WORSE THAN BETTING.

New Haven, Con.., Nov. 9.—The house of John Leete, a milkman, at Hampden Plains, was burned about midnight last night and $1,200 which Leete had in the house was consumed by the flames. Leete was absent at a political meeting at the time of the fire and his family had a narrow escape. The loss on the building is small.

PLEADS BANKRUPTCY.

New York, Nov. 9.—A private cablegram from London says: Mrs. C. S. Parnell has claimed the protection of the English bankruptcy courts, and a receiver has been appointed at her instance to take charge of her affairs. This action will probably have the effect of placing obstacles in the way of the release of the Paris fund.

INTO THE CABINET.

City of Mexico, Nov. 9.—The bill authorizing Senators Joaquin Baranda, Fernandez Leal and Romero Rubio to occupy posts in the cabinet has been approved.

Representatives of the railroads forming the London freight pools met yesterday to discuss the question of tariff rates.

A Woman Who Suffered.
HOW SHE FOUND RELIEF.

Read this Account of the Use of a Simple, Harmless Remedy.

SCOTTSVILLE, PA., March 18, 1892.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY:

Dear Sir—From the time I was thirteen years old, I have been afflicted with IT female trouble or weakness peculiar to my sex, a sickness prevalent to women. I was a great sufferer; during this long term of years I doctored with several different physicians and found no relief; was so reduced in strength and flesh that I weighed but 68 lbs. MADE I chanced not longago to learn of the wonderful cures Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was performing and I determined to try it; the first bottle produced marked improvement, and after taking five bottles of Favorite Remedy I was almost a ME well woman and weighed 121 1-2 lbs. "JUST THINK OF IT, MY SUFFERING SISTERS," such a gain in weight and better in health than I ever was. I can not urge you too strongly to use this great medicine of Dr. Kennedy's. A fair trial will always produce the happiest results. WELL I feel that in a little while I will be as strong as any woman alive.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CARRIE BOUTON.

Ladies, don't be discouraged and give up in despair, good health can be gained by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It will cure the most complicated of female sicknesses

Advice to Mothers of Fretful Babies

828 Huron St., Toledo, O., July 17, '92.
Hand Medicine Co., Gentlemen:

My baby is now three months old and has had colic all her life. We gave her all kinds of remedies without any beneficial effect. I was almost discouraged in trying anything else when a friend told me of your Dr. Hand's Colic Cure. I gave her 12 drops which acted like a charm. Now as soon as I discover she has wind colic I give her one or two doses which relieves her entirely. I want to advise all mothers who have fretful babies to use Dr. Hand's Colic Cure. I will hereafter always keep it in the house.

DO YOU WANT GOLD?

Cripple Creek is not a health resort. It is a wealth resort. Quite a difference! Location, near Pike's Peak, in Colorado. Gold—bright, yellow gold, is found at grass roots and in the rock formation.

Reliable experts claim this is to-day the richest camp in Colorado. Assays average $100 per ton, and have run as high as $5,000. One hundred people a day are now rushing to Fremont, chief town of the district.

The chance of a life-time is worth looking after!

You can get there quickly and comfortably by taking Santa Fe Route. Only line with no change of cars from Chicago. Kansas City and other principal cities to Florissant, nearest railroad station, with daily stages to Fremont.

WHY ILLINOIS IS DEMOCRATIC.

Details of Many of the Interior Counties of Illinois.

C. B. Holden returned yesterday from an extensive tour through the southern end of the state and reports a most flattering outlook for the democratic ticket. "Effingham county will give Altgeld 1,800 majority," said Mr. Holden, "and Cleveland will run very nearly even with Altgeld in Effingham county; Fayette county will give Altgeld 800 majority, Washington 250 majority and Jefferson 350 majority. Every county in southern Illinois is in better shape than ever before, and all will increase their usual majorities. In Union county the usual majority of 1,000 will be increased to 1,400. Wayne, Jackson, Washinton, White, Williamson, Perry, Gallatin, Saline, Wabash and Randolph are well organized, and the democrats will make decided gains in all of them. Wayne and Saline have heretofore been republican, but are sure to go democratic in this election. In Cobden township, Union county, 50 republicans openly declare their intention of voting the entire democratic ticket. The leading republican paper published in that township has declared for Cleveland and is now advocating the election of the entire democratic ticket.

"This is not guess work on my part, and I have positive proof to substantiate these statements. The republicans are making a desperate fight in Mount Vernon. They offered a well known saloon keeper in Mount Vernon $1,000 cash to support their ticket, which was refused. I am firmly of the opinion that both Cleveland and Altgeld will carry Illinois."

TRIBUTE.

While it is over thirty years ago since Allcock's Porous Plasters were first introduced to the medical profession and public, the marked success and unprecedented popularity which they met with not only continues, but steadily increases. No other plasters have been produced which gain so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Allcock's Porous Plasters, and the only motive for these exceptional tributes lies in the fact of their being a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Additional proof of the true value of Allcock's Porous Plasters lies in the fact that they are being largely imitated by unscrupulous persons, who seek to deceive the public by offering plasters which they claim to be the "same," "equal," "as good," "better," "best porous plaster," etc., while it is in general appearance only that they resemble Allcock's. Every one of the so-called porous plasters are imitations of Allcock's Porous Plasters.

Avoid dealers who attempt to palm off inferior and worthless plasters that are purchased by them at low rates for the purpose of substitution.

LIFE IN PARIS.

On the boulevard, with its newspapers, its book stores, its theaters, its cafes, its politicians, its financiers, its wits, its celebrities, its adventurers, and all the kaleidoscopic movement of men and things that animate it from morning until morning comes again, one appreciates that quality of modernity which characterizes Paris above all other cities. In other capitals where the fortunes of a nomad existence and a moderate gift of tongues have enabled me to live and comprehend the local life, I have never found anything equivalent to the life of the boulevard, which is the quintessence of the life of Paris. For the peculiarity of Paris is that it is being constantly renewed; it is not oppressed by history or hampered by an obtrusive past. There is an old Paris, it is true; one sees it and loves it; but it is so discreet that one has to seek it out. The present alone predominates. The vapory regions of souvenir and of presentiment are not willingly frequented by those who speak the French of Paris and who live in the brilliant sunshine of living Paris a life of intensity and ardor, here and now, upon the principle that life is the end of life.—From "Along the Parisian Boulevards," by Theodore Child, in Harper's Magazine for November.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head One Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his finger nails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

GEO. B. & JANETTA HARRIS, Webster, Ind.

Cuticura Resolvent

HAPPINESS DEFINED.

Wanting nothing and knowing it.
The mental sunshine of content.
A "will-o'-the-wisp" which eludes us even when we grasp it.
Excelsior! The ever-retreating summit on the hill of our ambition.
The prize at the top of a greasy pole, which is continually slipping from one's grasp.
The only thing a man continues to search for after he has found it.
The bull's-eye on the target at which all the human race are shooting.
The goal erected for the human race, which few reach, being too heavily handicapped.
A wayside flower growing only by the path of duty.
A bright and beautiful butterfly, which many chase but few capture.
The interest we receive from capital invested in good works.
The birthright of contentment.
A treasure which we search for far and wide, though oftimes it is lying at our feet.
The summer weather of the mind.
The dancing of the heart to its own music.—London Tid-Bits.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

IT WAS EXPLAINED.

In the year 1836 the aurora borealis was seen one night as far south as Wiltshire. The inhabitants of a certain village assembled to witness the unwonted spectacle. Many were the inquiries as to what it was, when a woman exclaimed: "Do thee send for our Jock. He's a scholard. I'll be bound he'll gie us a neame!" When Jock arrived he looked upward and said, "Oh, it's only a phenomenom!" "There!" said the delighted mother; "din't I tell 'ee he'd gie us a neame?"—Notes and Queries.

Indigestion, Dizziness. Take Beecham's Pills.

A SHARP POLITICIAN.

Jime Jones—he run for congress; they beat him out o' that—
Likewise a mule, a pair o' boots; an' bran new beaver hat;
But when he saw that he was whipped—did Jones feel sad an' sick?
Not him! he bought another mule an' run for sheriff quick!

They then put up another man, they said was sure to win.
An' shore enough Jim Jones went out while that same chap went in!
But did they find him sulkin' when he knew they'd whipped him clear?
Not him! he bought another mule an' run like bricks for mayor!

An' then he got elected, an' when he held the fort
He summoned them as whipped him out to come into his court;
An' he fined 'em each ten dollars—it was all jes' like a dream—
An' when they paid an' went away Jim Jones was rich as cream!
—Atlanta Constitution.

Within three years the number of horses used on street railway lines in this country has decreased from 88,000 to 59,000, electricity displacing 29,000 of the four-footed motors.

HUDSONS!

TOO SOON TO TALK ABOUT ULSTERS?

Not a bit of it. We are liable to have a blizzard any time. But bless you, you needn't buy one; we've lots of other Overcoats—Black and Mixed Auburn, Meltons, Black, Green, Tan and Olive Kerseys, single and double-breasted in regulars, longs and stouts, trimmed in the best manner, cut in the latest styles.

$15.00

Gives us a pointer. We are sure to have it. We have everything conceivable in the way of Overcoats, and a great many you can't conceive of, but you must give us some idea of what you want. We have them for $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $25, $30, $38.

Each and every one as good or better than you'll buy elsewhere at the prices.

It's just as hard to tell you about our MEN'S and YOUNG MEN'S SUITS. We've such a lot of them that we can't describe one without detriment to the others, and they are all of them worthy.

The question of BOYS' CLOTHING necessarily agitates us more than it does you. We are always thinking of it, always planning. We believe you will find in our stock of SUITS and OVERCOATS, more style, better quality, better make, and a greater variety than you'll see at other places.
